

INTRODUCTION to STUDENT & ORGANIZATION POLICIES and REGULATIONS

(Reference: UC Systemwide PACAOS 10.00 – 20.00, 50.00, 170.00 & Appendix C)

10.00 Preamble

In carrying out its teaching, research and public service mission, the University has an obligation to maintain conditions under which the work of its members — the faculty, students and staff — can go forward freely, in accordance with the highest standards of quality, institutional integrity and freedom of expression, and with full recognition by all concerned of the rights and privileges, and responsibilities of those who compose the University community.

These campus regulations address the rights and responsibilities of primarily undergraduate and graduate student members of the University community as well as others while on University property. These regulations also address the responsibilities of students as defined herein and provide campus-wide standards as a means of sustaining this community.

Each member of the UC Merced campus shares in the responsibility for maintaining this unique community so that the University's mission of teaching, research and public service can be achieved.

These policies and regulations are designed to protect and promote the rights and members of the University, prevent interference with University functions or activities, and assure compliance with all pertinent laws and other applicable University policies.

20.00 Authority

The Regents of the University of California is a corporation that derives its authority from the California Constitution, Article IX, Section 9, which prescribes its powers of organization and governance. These policies and regulations are issued under this authority.

These regulations are adopted by the chancellor with the approval of the president. The responsibility for developing, modifying, and publishing these regulations is delegated by the chancellor to the vice chancellor for Student Affairs.

30.00 Universitywide Policies and Campus Regulations

These campus regulations comply with the policies established by The Regents of the University of California, identified as the Policies Applying to Campus Activities, Organizations and Students (PACAOS).

40.00 Revision of Campus Regulations

The vice chancellor of Student Affairs will consult with students, faculty and staff in the development or revision of policies and regulations except when the development or revision results from changes to the UC Policies Applying to Campus Activities, Organizations and Students (PACAOS) or that have been specifically mandated by law.

A. Proposed Changes to Policies and Regulations

Any student, faculty member, or staff member may recommend a change in these campus policies and regulations by submitting a request in writing to the vice chancellor for Student Affairs. Requests will be considered when the Review Board is convened.

B. Review Board

The vice chancellor for Student Affairs will convene a Review Board for review and revision of these policies and regulations as necessary. The Board will review requests and make recommendations to the vice chancellor for ultimate approval by the chancellor.

To the extent possible, the Review Board will be comprised of:

1. Chair - assistant/associate vice chancellor, Student Affairs (or designee)
2. Board Members - membership will be comprised of representatives from the Office of Student Life, Student Conduct, Housing & Residence Life, Associated Students, staff, instructional faculty, and both undergraduate and graduate students. A good faith effort will be made to obtain membership as described.

C. Adoption of Revised and New Policies and Regulations

Review Board recommendations will be submitted to the vice chancellor for Student Affairs who will review the proposed revisions, seek clarification or request further if necessary then forward the recommendations for Office of the President review. Prior to their adoption, all proposed implementing regulations, including all substantive modifications to existing such regulations, shall be submitted to the Office of the President for review, in consultation with the Office of General Counsel, for consistency with University Policies and the law. Campus policies will then be submitted to the chancellor for review and approval.

Nondiscrimination

Policy on Nondiscrimination

The University is committed to a policy against legally impermissible, arbitrary, or unreasonable discriminatory practices. All groups operating under the authority of The Regents, including administration, faculty, student governments, University-owned residence halls, and programs sponsored by the University or any campus, are governed by this policy of nondiscrimination. The intent of the University's policy on nondiscrimination is to reflect fully the spirit of the law. In carrying out this Policy, the University also shall be sensitive to the existence of past and continuing societal discrimination.

Nondiscrimination Policy Statement for University of California Publications Regarding Student-Related Matters

The University of California, in accordance with applicable federal and state law and University policy, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, pregnancy physical or mental disability, medical condition (cancer-related or genetic characteristics), ancestry, marital status, age, sexual orientation, citizenship, or service in the uniformed services². The University also prohibits sexual harassment. This nondiscrimination policy covers admission, access and treatment in University programs and activities.

CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

(Reference: UC Systemwide PACAOS 70.00)

200.00 Formation, Privileges and Responsibilities of Registered Campus Organizations

Definition; Registration and Membership Requirements

- A. A Registered Campus Organization (RCO) is an organization whose membership predominantly comprises students, faculty, and/or staff of UC Merced, and that attains recognition as a RCO by complying with the requirements and procedures set forth in these policies. Such regulations shall require that the organization furnish a written statement of its name and its purposes, signed by its officers or other authorized representatives, and that includes as well such other pertinent information as the campus may specify.
- B. Membership in a RCO shall be open to any student, consistent with PACAOS 20.00 Nondiscrimination Policy and PACAOS Appendix C: Nondiscrimination Policy Statement for University of California Publications Regarding Student-Related Matters, with the exception that membership in an officially recognized sorority or fraternity may be limited by gender. Membership in a RCO may be extended to individuals other than students, faculty and staff in accordance with current RCO Standard Practices and Procedures Guidelines.
- C. An authorized student government of UC Merced shall not be eligible for registration also as a RCO.

201.00 Initial Registration Procedures

Any group of University of California, Merced students, faculty and/or staff may obtain RCO status by filing a registration packet with the Office of Student Life, which includes:

1. A copy of an organizational constitution or an equivalent document which shall include
 - a) the name of organization, b) a clearly defined statement of purpose, c) all requirements for membership including dues or fees, d) qualifications for holding office, if applicable, e) methods of selecting and replacing officers, if applicable, and f) documents explaining the nature of any formal affiliations the campus organization has with external organizations/agencies.
2. The names of at least four UC Merced student officers/representatives, with their local addresses, email addresses and phone numbers.
3. The name of a RCO advisor.

- a. All RCOs are required to have an advisor who is a member of the faculty, staff, or an individual registered as a graduate student.
 - b. Groups that are unable to locate an advisor may have a member of the Office of Student Life staff serve as their "temporary" advisor.
4. Payment of annual fee to be determined by the Office of Student Life and approved by the University.
5. A signed statement verifying that the RCO agrees to comply with the following:
- a. Local, state and federal laws and University and campus policies and regulations applicable to such organizations.
 - b. A non-discrimination statement.
 - c. A non-hazing statement.
 - d. In the case of RCOs funded by compulsory campus based student fees, limitation of voting and office-holding privileges to University of California, Merced students.

202.00

Continuing Registration Procedures

In order to maintain registered status, every RCO must re-register with the Office of Student Life each fall semester. Registration includes a) delineating an advisor and at least four registered student officers/representatives who sign the statements of compliance with campus regulations/policies, and state and federal laws, b) reviewing, updating and approving the constitution on file with the Office of Student Life, c) paying the annual registration fee if one is required.

Use of University Name

- A. A RCO shall not use the name of the University of California or abbreviations thereof as a part of its own name except in accordance with applicable law and University policy (including, but not limited to, State of California Education Code, Section 92000, and the Presidential Policy to Permit Use of the University's Name) as well as campus implementing regulations.
- B. The geographical designation "at the University of California, Merced" may be used by any RCO as part of its name without obtaining special approval. Permission for any other use of the name "University of California, Merced" or "UCM" or any abbreviation thereof as part of a registered organization's name may be granted only by the Chancellor or his/her designee.

- C. .The name (including the granting of titles, insignia, seal or address) of the University may not be used in any manner, political, or otherwise, which implies that the University supports or agrees with any of the activities, positions, purposes, ideals, or goals of any individuals, groups, or organizations acting within these regulations. Permission to use the name may be made conditional upon appropriate disclaimer of University endorsement or sponsorship. RCOs using University property or services must avoid any unauthorized implication that they are sponsored, endorsed, or favored by the University.
- D. Permission to use the name of the University may be withdrawn by the chancellor at any time.
- E. RCO cannot use the same name as another already registered campus organization, department, or academic affiliated group.

204.00 Privileges and Responsibilities

A. Privileges

RCOs have access to the following resources:

1. Consultation services: program planning, publicity, fundraising, leadership training, advisement and facilities scheduling.
2. An assigned mailbox for organizational use.
3. Option to reserve campus facilities, the use of which must conform to applicable time, place and manner regulations.
4. Use of designated posting areas.
5. Use of tables to promote organizational activities/purposes.
6. Use of campus services/resources to support organizational activities on a direct-cost basis.
7. Option of applying for viewpoint neutral Associated Students of University of California Merced funding in accordance with currently approved financial by-laws.

B. Responsibilities

1. The officers/representatives of a campus organization lending its name, membership, property or support to a function shall be held responsible for the conduct of its members or guests attending that function. At least one officer/representative and one other responsible member must be in attendance at all functions sponsored or co-sponsored by the organization.
2. Organizational officers/representatives are responsible for ensuring that the name, insignia, seal or address of the University of California, Merced, is not used without approval from the chancellor or her/his designee, or in any manner that implies UC Merced support or agreement with any of the activities, positions, purposes, ideals or goals of any individual, group or organization acting within these regulations. Campus organizations are encouraged to design their own letterhead for use in correspondence.
3. Organizational officers/representatives are responsible for the financial obligations to the University incurred by their organization, and may be responsible for such obligations to others.
4. The chancellor or designee may investigate through audits or other means and take action to ensure that fiscal activities of campus organizations occurring on University properties comply with applicable laws and University policies and procedures.
5. Organizational officers/representatives are financially responsible for any damage that occurs to University facilities as a result of use by their organizations.
6. Organizational officers/representatives may not commit the University to any contractual arrangements or make any representations that might be construed in any way as a commitment without prior written approval of the University. Organizational officers/representatives who sign contracts with off-campus vendors or University agencies in return for services or goods are financially responsible for fulfilling the terms of those contracts. The University is in no way responsible for "making good" on such agreements.
7. Organizational officers/representatives are financially responsible for providing reasonable disability accommodations upon request.
8. Organizational officers/representatives are responsible for complying with University policies, campus regulations, and current RCO Standard Practices and Procedures Guidelines.

205.00

Conduct and Discipline

- A. A Registered Campus Organization is required to comply with University policies and campus regulations as well as applicable laws or it will be subject to revocation of registration, loss of privileges, or other sanctions. In denying or revoking registration or applying sanctions, campus regulations shall provide an opportunity for a hearing with basic standards of procedural due process.

- B. Whether on or off campus, Registered Campus Organizations members are expected to comply with University policies and campus regulations. Violations may result in the revocation of registration, loss of privileges, or other sanctions as listed in policies 700.00-705.11a. Situations or incidents involving alleged violations will be referred to the proper conduct officer or body for review and/or action. See 703.00 for Student Discipline Procedures.

206.00 Requirements for Funding from Compulsory Campus-Based Student Fees

A Registered Campus Organization that is preponderantly or exclusively funded by a student government or other campus entity from compulsory campus-based student fees shall primarily have University of California students as its members. Particular programs and activities of a Registered Campus Organization funded from compulsory campus-based student fees shall be open to participation by the entire campus community. In addition, all expenditures relating to particular programs and activities of a Registered Campus Organization (whether the program or activity takes place on- or off-campus) that are funded from such fees must be under the direct control of University of California students.

207.00 Support

A Registered Campus Organization or Registered Campus Organization-related program or activity may be supported from compulsory campus-based student fees and/or from voluntary contributions.

A registered student organization may fundraise to support their activities but must follow the fundraising guidelines available in the Office of Student Life and as outlined in policy 312.00 of the Student Policies.

The referendum process shall not be accessible to a Registered Campus Organization or any student group other than a student government. The foregoing is not intended to preclude access to the referendum process by any administrative unit of the University, subject to appropriate student consultation. Support for a Registered Campus Organization or any student group other than a student government from compulsory campus-based student fees must be in the form of a reallocation from student government or other appropriate campus entity to the Registered Campus Organization or other student group. All such reallocations must be made consistent with the requirements for viewpoint-neutral funding.

Any process adopted by a student government or other campus entity to provide support to a Registered Campus Organization or Registered Campus Organization-related program or activity from compulsory campus-based student fees must employ solely viewpoint-neutral criteria.

A student government in consultation with the campus, or a campus with the concurrence of the student government, may at its discretion establish and administer a mechanism providing for a pro rata refund to any student of that portion of his or her compulsory campus-based student fees that has been allocated by a student government or other campus entity to support a particular Registered Campus Organization or Registered Campus Organization-related program or activity. Establishment of such a refund mechanism is not required either as a matter of University policy or the law.

208.00 Transfer of Compulsory Campus-Based Student Fees to Non-University Entities

Compulsory campus-based student fees may be expended by a Registered Campus Organization to cover the expenses of direct participation by University students in a particular non-University-sponsored educational program or activity. Such fees may also be expended for the payment of applicable dues necessary to sustain membership by a Registered Campus Organization in national and other regional non-university associations at the basic level established by such associations, so long as the level of any such assessment is in line with what is assessed similar student organizations at other institutions comparable in size and nature to the University as a requirement of basic membership. Except as provided immediately below, memberships at a preferential level that require the payment of higher periodic dues than what is required to sustain basic membership, or the assessment by such non-university associations of supplemental contributions from their members as an expectation but not a requirement of continued membership, may not be supported from compulsory campus-based student fees.

Other than for considerations of basic membership as set forth above, additional transfers of funds from compulsory campus-based student fees by a Registered Campus Organization to such non-university associations may be made only when they can be justified, in advance of the transfer, to the chancellor (or other campus official designated by the chancellor with administrative oversight over Registered Campus Organizations) as providing a direct educational benefit to University of California students commensurate with the proposed expenditure.

Compulsory campus-based fees may not otherwise be expended by a Registered Campus Organization in support of, or be otherwise transferred to, a non-university organization, program, or activity, except in payment for goods and services directly necessary to the operation of the Registered Campus Organization, its programs or activities.

The referendum process set forth in these Policies shall not be available either to establish a new compulsory campus-based student fee, or to lock in an increase to an existing such fee, for the purpose of supporting any non-university organization, program, or activity.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES and USE of FACILITIES
(Reference: UC Systemwide PACAOS 30.00 & 40.00)

300.00 General Provisions

- A. University properties shall be used in accordance with federal, state and local laws and shall not be used for the purpose of organizing or carrying out unlawful activity.
- B. All persons on University property are required to abide by University policies and campus regulations and shall identify themselves upon request to University officials acting in the performance of their duties. Violation of University policies or campus regulations may subject a person to possible legal penalties; if the person is a student, faculty member, or staff member of the University, that person may also be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with University policies and campus implementing regulations.

301.00 Grounds Open to the Public

On University grounds generally open to the public, all persons may exercise the constitutionally protected rights of free expression, speech, assembly, worship and distribution of literature incidental to the exercise of these freedoms; however, these activities must not interfere with the orderly operation of the campus, may not include sales or solicitation without a permit, and must be conducted in accordance with the campus time, place and manner regulations.

- A. For the purpose of these regulations, "grounds open to the public generally" are defined as the outdoor areas of the campus (lawns, patios and plazas) that are adjacent to campus buildings and parking lots.
- B. In the event that the architecture of a building includes entrances with stairs or landings, no activity, event, or distribution may take place on the stairs or landings. This restriction applies to the Lantern and stairs to the Kolligian Library. Exceptions will be considered by request.
- C. All activity must comply with time, place and manner regulations and be conducted in such a way that traffic is not impeded and the normal activities in classrooms and offices are not disrupted.
- D. Tables or moveable stands may not be placed in areas where passages to any entrance or walkways are blocked, where the free flow of pedestrian traffic is restricted, or where emergency fire lanes are blocked. Additional and more restrictive policies may apply to specific facilities or use areas.

- E. Student groups using moveable tables or stands at any location on the campus must have the prior approval of the Office of Student Life. Authority for approval rests with the director of Student Life or designee.

302.00 Speech and Advocacy

The University is committed to assuring that all persons may exercise the constitutionally protected rights of free expression, speech, assembly and worship.

Civil disobedience has had a historic role in our democracy, but such activity is not protected speech under the Constitution and those engaging in it may be held accountable for policies or regulations violated.

303.00 Time, Place and Manner

The time, place and manner of exercising constitutionally protected rights of free expression, speech, assembly and worship are subject to the regulations below that provide for noninterference with University functions, to provide reasonable protection to persons from practices that would make them involuntary audiences, or place them in reasonable fear, as determined by the University, for their personal safety.

On University grounds open to the public generally, all persons may exercise the constitutionally protected rights of free expression, speech and assembly.

Such activities must not, however, interfere with the right of the University to conduct its affairs in an orderly manner and to maintain its property. Further, no activities may interfere with the University's obligation to protect the rights of all to teach, study and fully exchange ideas. Physical force, the threat of force, and other coercive activities used to subject anyone to speech of any kind are expressly prohibited.

304.00 Amplified Sound Areas and Outdoor Gatherings

Sound amplification equipment may not be used at any outdoor location without the prior written approval of the Office of Student Life or Housing and Residence Life.

If complaints are received indicating that the amplification sound level is interfering with the operations of the campus, the responsible person(s) will be directed to lower the volume by Student Affairs staff. If additional complaints occur, the person(s) in charge of the amplification equipment will be directed to turn off the sound completely.

The amplification of music shall be restricted to the hours between noon and 1 p.m. and 7 and 10 p.m. (Monday through Friday), while voice amplification may be approved to occur between the hours of 11 a.m. and 10 p.m. (Monday through Friday).

Requests for extension of hours (as well as approval for weekend use) must be submitted in writing at least four business days in advance of the event to the Office of Student Life.

305.00 Non-University Speakers

Non-university persons/groups may be invited to participate in events sponsored in University facilities upon invitation of the student governments, other University schools and units, or registered campus organizations. Non-University speakers or entities may not schedule facilities or collect funds therein unless sponsored by a University department, official unit, or registered campus organization. It is the expectation of the University that all speakers and entities will recognize that the essence of the University is to provide for the free exchange of ideas and the expression of a variety of intellectual perspectives. On-campus programs should be designed in the best interests of the educational process, allowing appropriate opportunities for audience interaction.

The only facilities exempt from this sponsorship provision are the outdoor areas of the campus open to the public generally. Use of these areas by non-University persons without a campus sponsor, however, may not involve the use of amplified sound, and may not interfere with scheduled events by registered campus organizations and University departments.

306.00 Posting Regulations

These regulations, pertaining to both campus affiliates and non-affiliates unless otherwise stated, permit the posting, distribution and exhibition of materials on campus within the guidelines below. Posting that may damage any University property is prohibited.

These regulations apply to individual members of the campus community as well as groups and organizations. The University reserves the right to remove any posting violating these guidelines, or for administrative or facility maintenance reasons. Fines may be assessed for violating these guidelines.

All materials must be reviewed by the Office of Student Life prior to posting to ensure that the materials clearly indicate the name of the sponsoring organization(s), unit(s) or individual(s) and their contact information.

Materials acceptable for posting:

- A. Noncommercial Materials: “Noncommercial materials” refers to printed material that is not sold or distributed for private business or personal profit, or the promotion of such profit. Examples of noncommercial material include announcement for activities, events and services.
- B. Occasional/Incidental Sale by a Campus Affiliate: Public notices regarding the occasional/incidental sale of personal property belonging to students and employees of the University and those offering educationally related services or information of interest to UC Merced students, faculty and staff are permitted. These notices must be posted in the area(s) indicated for campus affiliated advertising only.
- C. Events/Goods/Services: Advertisements, posters and literature related to events/goods/services for commercial and non-commercial purposes.

307.00

Unacceptable Posting and Advertising Methods

- A. Classroom Chalkboard/Dry Erase Board Posting and Announcements - Written announcements of upcoming events on chalkboards or dry erase boards in any instructional facility that has limited chalkboard space, is prohibited. Academic use of chalkboards will always take precedence over other uses.
- B. Chalking of sidewalks, walkways and buildings is not permitted on University property. Exceptions for sidewalk chalking will be granted by the Office of Student Life for affiliates only with the stipulation that approval is requested in advance of chalking and that all chalk removal costs are covered by the sponsoring group or individual.
- C. Use of materials to mount advertisements that will damage posting surfaces, which include but may not be limited to masking tape, scotch tape, glue, paste, nails and duct tape are prohibited.
- D. Unless otherwise indicated, posting in or on campus buildings, sidewalks, trees, bridges, bike path railings, windows (except as approved by specific departments), traffic signs, fixed poles, blue light poles, lamp poles, doors, fountains, benches, trashcans, shrubbery and all other areas not suitable for staples or tape and not specifically identified in these regulations is prohibited.
- E. Unless otherwise indicated, writing, posting or taping directly on sidewalks, paths or on the exterior or interior surfaces of buildings or walls with any material is a violation of these regulations.
- F. Posting on top of or removing announcements that are current is a violation of these regulations.

- G. No flyers, announcements, or literature of any kind may be placed on automobiles (e.g., under the windshield wipers) on University property.
- H. No flyers, announcements, or literature of any kind may be left unattended on campus grounds or in classrooms. That is, literature may be handed to interested persons or posted appropriately in designated areas for their information, but it may not be left for others to pick up.

308.00

The Approval Process

- A. The Office of Student Life will keep a record of all approved posting areas on campus.
- B. The Office of Student Life must approve all materials (i.e. ensure that the materials include the name and contact information for the sponsoring entity) prior to having materials posted or taken for secondary approval to post in restricted areas. The only exception permits the Housing and Residence Life Office to approve materials to be posted by Student Housing Staff and the Resident Housing Government only within the designated posting areas of student housing.
- C. Secondary approval is required to post in restricted posting areas by campus affiliates only. After securing approval to post materials by the Office of Student Life, campus affiliates must seek secondary approval by a particular owner (school/department/office) of the space. Please check with the main reception area of the specific school/department/office for the location you wish to post. Secondary approval will be granted per guidelines available in specific school/department/office.

309.00

Approved Advertising/Posting Areas:

- A. Posters and Announcements
Bulletin Boards and other designated posting areas are marked with the type of acceptable posting. All materials must be approved prior to posting. When posting documents with tape, painter's tape (e.g., blue tape) must be used to protect the posting surface.
 1. Campus Boards – only campus affiliates may post in these designated areas.
 2. Restricted Boards – only campus affiliates may request to post materials in restricted posting areas.
 3. Banner Areas – banners (no more than three feet in length and three feet in width) may be posted in approved areas by campus affiliates only.

4. Public – all materials from non-university persons or groups may be posted on public boards only.
 5. Only one posting for each event will be approved for each designated posting area.
 6. Flyers are generally 8.5 inches-by-11 inches or 9 inches-by-14 inches.
- B. General Distribution

Flyers, announcements, or literature of registered campus organizations may be distributed through campus mailboxes as long as the method of distribution is in keeping with departmental policy and applicable University policies. All inquiries regarding the appropriateness of distribution will be referred to the Office of Student Life for resolution.

Requests for tabling and distribution of literature elsewhere on campus may be approved by exception by the Office of Student Life.

1. Any person or organization wishing to distribute publications must notify the Office of Student Life regarding distribution and litter control plans.
 2. All publications distributed within or in front of the on-campus residence halls and dining commons must have prior approval from the Office of Housing and Residence Life or its designee.
- C. Non-Traditional Displays and Decorations (e.g., sandwich boards, table displays, aerial displays and balloon arches)

Postings requiring non-traditional display methods may be approved for display for a maximum of two weeks. A written proposal outlining the purpose, time period, location(s) and materials to be used must be presented to the Office of Student Life for approval at least one week before the desired posting/display date. Additional approval from the office of Facilities Management may be required.

- D. Electronic Announcements – are available to campus affiliates only. To request an announcement, contact the Office of Student Life, the Students First Center, or Library Services for details and instructions regarding digital signage.
- E. Banners
1. Banners must receive prior approval from the Office of Student Life at least three business days prior to the event. Banners must not cover other advertisements or posted material.
 2. Banners may not exceed three feet in length and three feet in width.

3. Staked banners/signs that would be placed in ground cover (preferably) or lawn areas must receive posting location approval from Facilities Management and can be posted for a maximum of two weeks. The signs cannot be closer than five feet on either side of bike paths and may not be placed in areas that constitute a hazard for pedestrians.

310.00 Removal of Poster Material

- A. All material referring to a specific event or deadline, including directional signs, must be removed within 48 hours after the event/deadline by the sponsoring organization.
- B. All material not referring to a specific event or deadline is to be removed by the “post until date.” In the absence of a “post until date,” the material will be removed by the end of the semester by the sponsoring organization. Failure to remove material may result in fines to the sponsoring entity.

311.00 Disposition of Reported Posting Violations

A. Reporting Violations

Any member of the campus community may register a written complaint or concern with the Office of Student Life regarding alleged posting violations and potential clean-up costs.

- B. All potential violations of policy will be referred to Student Conduct for adjudication.

C. Sanctions for Posting Violations

Individuals or groups responsible for posting violations may be charged a penalty fine, required to pay the actual cost of clean up, and/or issued a written warning. Repeat offenses may result in more extensive fines and the loss of organizational privileges.

312.00 Fundraising, Benefits and Donations and Food Sales

A. General Provisions

1. University facilities are not to be used for commercial activities unless specifically identified in these policies for that purpose.
2. Donations made and funds raised must be designated for a purpose consistent with the University’s mission of teaching, research and public service.

3. All campus fundraisers must have a fundraising permit issued by the Office of Student Life. Fundraising permits must be displayed at all times and funds deposited into campus account and reported within three days of the event.
4. The following University services and programs are exempt from the commercial activity restriction: Campus Store, Dining and Retail Services, Campus Recreation, University Extension programs and classes, and Housing and Residence Life.
5. Any contract involving a campus entity or organization must specify the financial terms agreed to by both parties and the contract must be reviewed by an Office of Student Life advisor. Contracts for Student Housing Associations events held in housing facilities need to be approved by the director of Housing and Residence Life or designee.

B. Fundraising

RCOs and student governments may use University facilities to raise funds on campus when they are in compliance with the following definitions and regulations:

1. RCO fundraising events, including all sales activities, must have prior approval by the Office of Student Life (in the case of the Associated Students, Graduate Students Association and registered campus organizations). Student Housing Association events held in housing facilities require the director of Housing and Residence Life or designee approval.
2. The funds raised using campus facilities may not be used for any illegal purposes and must be consistent with the stated purposes of the sponsoring organization.
3. When a University facility or grounds is used for an event, the sponsoring organization shall pay in advance or encumber funds sufficient to pay, prior to the event all pre-established program costs (e.g., facility use, production costs and equipment rental fees).
4. RCOs using University facilities to raise funds must be financially accountable and operate within the UC Merced RCO Accounting Guidelines, available in the Office of Student Life.
5. The University reserves the right to investigate the financial records of a campus organization that has been allowed to raise funds on campus to determine if the funds are being used for the purpose for which they were raised, or if there is a reasonable allegation of impropriety.
6. In the event that a fundraiser loses money, the sponsoring organization remains liable for covering all costs incurred by the activity.

C. Benefits and Donations

RCOs may sponsor non-commercial activities, sales and performances for the benefit of persons or off-campus organizations as long as the personal gain restriction is not violated and the campus organization agrees to comply with the stipulations outlined in the guidelines available in the Office of Student Life.

D. Food Sales

Food sales on University properties must comply with the guidelines and timelines outlined in Food Sales Guide available in the Office of Student Life. Food served free of charge at potlucks, parties or meetings where the event is not open to the general public does not need a selling permit or prior approval. However, food must be served following the guidelines listed in the Food Sales Guide, copies of which are available at the Office of Student Life.

E. Sponsorships

Guidelines related to the sponsorship of UC Merced Registered Campus Organizations are available in the Office of Student Life.

F. Fundraising for Charities

RCOs may conduct fundraisers for charitable organizations and must follow the guidelines located in the Office of Student Life.

G. Use of University Funds/Services

All Student Organization expenditures using university-allocated funds (including gifts) are subject to standard University accounting policies and procedures.

The University operates on a recharge/purchase order system when utilizing University services (i.e. facility rental, graphics, etc.) or when dealing with off campus businesses. All expenditures must be pre-approved by the Office of Student Life. Reimbursements are rare and, if not approved in advance, may result in a loss to the individual or organization. Original receipts are required for all reimbursements.

All collections should be recorded with the University Cashiering Department and all expenditures processed through the procurement and the accounts payable department. Opening and maintaining bank accounts in the name of the RCOs is not allowed.

H. Use of University Name, Insignia, Seal or Address

See "Campus Organizations" regulation 203.00.

313.00 Serving Alcohol at a Campus Event

The use of alcohol on University property and at University-sanctioned events must be in compliance with California law. Guidelines related to the use of alcohol may be found in the campus Alcohol Policy and Procedures (policy under review – will create/ insert link). In addition:

1. Campus organizations shall not use funds raised through University-sanctioned events for the purchase or distribution of alcohol.
2. The University cannot expend state funds on alcohol.

314.00 Use of University Facilities

A. General Provisions

1. All use of University facilities must be in accordance with federal, state and local laws, and with University policies and regulations.
2. Those using University properties and services must avoid any implication that they are sponsored, endorsed or favored by the University.

315.00 Scheduling Facilities

A. Facility Requests

1. All facility use requests for non-course-related purposes should be submitted to the designated facility coordinator for the selected venue. Facility use requests for classrooms should be submitted to the Office of the Registrar.
2. Request for space should not be considered confirmed until a written confirmation is sent to the originating group/individual.

B. Approval of Requests

1. The use of campus facilities for events held in classrooms, assembly rooms, meeting rooms, outdoor venues and recreational facilities must be coordinated through the designated facility coordinator for that venue. Approval/non-approval of an event will be based on the following criteria:
 - a. The relationship between the nature of the request (type of event) and the policies governing the use of campus facilities and the primary purpose/function of the facility.

- b. Whether or not there are any known scheduling conflicts.
 - c. Whether or not the proposed activity poses a risk of danger or injury to persons, or damage to property and/or to the orderly operation of the University.
2. In the event that the designated facility coordinator for the desired venue denies a request for use of campus facilities the sponsoring organization may request that the vice chancellor for Student Affairs review the decision.

The Office of Student Life and the Office of Housing and Residence Life have the authority to cancel an event, prior to its commencement, if it is determined that the event may pose a risk to people or property. The Department of Public Safety has the authority to cancel an in-progress event if it is determined that the event poses an imminent and substantial risk to people or property. Response to peaceful protest, assembly and speech will conform to UC Merced Protocol for Responding to Peaceful Assembly or Protest.

C. Reservation Cancellation

1. In the event that a scheduled space will not be used, the designated facility coordinator must be notified immediately by the sponsoring organization. Cancellation notice must be given a minimum of two working days prior to the event.
2. Individuals or campus organizations who fail to cancel their space reservations in a timely manner or on more than one occasion may lose facility use privileges.

Special/Major Events Approval

Any group wishing to sponsor events that meet one or more of the criteria defined below must gain approval from the Office of Student Life a minimum of two weeks prior to the event. For events that do not lend themselves to prior planning (e.g., rallies or demonstrations inspired by current events), organizers should consult immediately with the Office of Student Life to ensure compliance with protest, speech and assembly protocol.

- A. Total attendance (both participants and spectators) of 500 or more is anticipated.
- B. Brings non-university vendors to campus (food vendors, for profit vendors, etc).
- C. Has the potential to be disruptive to the normal business of the University or the community (e.g., bands, dances, festivals, etc.).

317.00 Exam Prep Days and Finals

During the final week of classes the scheduling of major events is discouraged, and during exam prep days and finals, it is intended that major activities and/or mandatory meetings (e.g., administrative, ad hoc, or search committees) not be scheduled in order to maintain a campus climate conducive to study.

A request from a RCO for an exception to this regulation for an activity must be submitted in writing to the Office of Student Life.

318.00 Use of University Facilities for Events and Activities Sponsored by Non-Affiliates

Non-affiliates are defined as any person who is not a student, officer, official volunteer, employee, regent, or emeritus of the University of California or a member of a household authorized to reside on University property.

1. All use of campus facilities by non-affiliates shall be coordinated and approved by the appropriate campus facility office.
2. Individual University faculty, staff and students will be considered to be "non-affiliates" when requesting facilities for events not related to or approved by a school, unit or campus organization, or when they wish to use facilities for commercial purposes.
3. The sponsoring organization is responsible for the facilities reservation and all accompanying requests, potential fees, as well as following event cancellation policies. These requests shall have lower priority in securing facilities than events solely associated with campus or student groups.

See the University of California Regulations Governing Non-Affiliates in the Buildings and on the Grounds of the University of California for additional information regarding non-affiliates.

319.00 On Campus Marketing of Credit Cards

The California Student Financial Responsibility Act of 2001 requested that the University of California "adopt policies to regulate the marketing practices used on campuses by credit card companies." In addition, the Credit Card Accountability Responsibility and Disclosure Act of 2009 seeks to protect young consumers by implementing specific safeguards and increasing the transparency of affinity agreements between credit card companies and universities. Pursuant to such legislation and consistent with the interest of the University in establishing minimum Universitywide standards (based on existing campus policies in this area) to regulate such activity, the following policy applies to all banks and other commercial entities (including their third-party representatives) that engage in the marketing of credit cards to students through solicitation activities (hereafter referred to as "marketing" activities) on or near campuses and at campus events of the University of California.

For more information, see PACAOS Appendix D: University of California Policy and Supplemental Guidelines on the Marketing of Credit Cards to Students.

STUDENT GOVERNMENTS
(Reference: UC Systemwide PACAOS 60.00 – 67.10)

400.00 Status

The Associated Students and Graduate Students Association are the authorized student governments of the University of California, Merced. The Chancellor has the authority to authorize or discontinue recognition of student governmental entities as official student governments, consistent with the status of such governments as official units of the University of California (see the Regents Policy on the Status of Associated Students). Such governments are responsible for representing student constituencies comprising either the student body as a whole or a particular segments of it. The chancellor may also assign to such student governments specified powers and other responsibilities concerning student affairs.

401.00 Authority, Responsibility and Purposes of Student Governments

Student governments shall have authority and responsibility over matters that are consistent with their enabling documents such as constitutions and by-laws, and with the University's purposes for such governments as defined by these policies and implementing campus regulations. It shall be the responsibility of student governments, in consultation with the chancellor or the chancellor's designee, to ensure that their enabling documents, as well as all their programs and activities, are consistent with the status of such governments as official units of the University, and with the University's purposes for such governments, as set forth below, as well as with all other provisions of these Policies and with implementing campus regulations.

Consistent with the provisions of these policies, the University's purposes for student governments are:

- A. To provide students with the educational benefits of participation in student government;
- B. To provide a forum for the discussion of issues and ideas of interest, importance, and/or of concern to students;
- C. To provide financial and other tangible support for student activities and organizations on a viewpoint-neutral basis in order to foster a sense of community and to further discussion among students of the broadest range of ideas;
- D. To communicate student views to audiences, including external governmental offices and agencies, consistent with the provisions below; and

- E. To provide such additional services to students as may be determined by the chancellor or chancellor's designee to be consistent with the status of student governments as official units of the University and with the other provisions of these policies.

402.00 Support

Student governments may be supported by compulsory campus-based student fees and/or by voluntary student contributions as outlined in systemwide policy.

403.00 Right to Take Positions on Public Issues

Student governments shall have the right to address and take positions on public issues as consideration of such matters serves the University's purposes for such governments as set forth in Section 401.00 of these policies. Positions on issues taken by student governments shall not be represented as or deemed to be positions of any entity of the University other than the student government.

404.00 Right to Use University Name and Unofficial Seal

The Associated Students and Graduate Students Association are official units of the University, and may use the unofficial seal of the University of California, as well as their designations (ASUCM and GSAUCM), and their on-campus addresses in connection with official correspondence and programs.

405.00 Lobbying and Other Public Policy-Oriented Activities

Consistent with the University's purposes for student governments, student governments may undertake lobbying and other public policy-oriented activities on student-related matters, as defined in systemwide policy, supported by compulsory campus-based student fees and/or by voluntary student contributions.

The lobbying and other public policy-oriented activities of student governments serve the University's purposes for such governments when such activities provide students with educational experiences in developing, discussing and resolving positions on student-related matters, and articulating these positions through public and private discussions, meetings and other forms of communication.

In furtherance of the University's purposes for student governments, the educational benefit provided to students by such activities must outweigh any purpose of furthering a particular ideological or political viewpoint. Consistent with this requirement, all such activities must be established by and under the direct and exclusive control of student governments and their democratic processes, and offer opportunities for participation by University of California students in meaningful learning experiences.

405.01 Definition of Lobbying Activities

The term "lobbying activities" as used in these policies means the funding or sponsorship by student governments of any program or activity of such governments that involves direct contact (whether face-to-face, by telephone, or in writing) with non-university legislative or other governmental officials in order to communicate a student government position (including the supporting rationale for that position) on a student-related matter.

405.02 Definition of Public Policy-Oriented Activities Other Than Lobbying

The term "other public policy-oriented activities" as used in these Policies means the funding or sponsorship by student governments of any program or activity of such governments (other than "lobbying activities" as defined in Section 405.01 of these Policies) that involves the communication to a University audience of a student government position (including the supporting rationale for that position) on a student-related matter.

405.03 Systemwide Pro Rata Refund Requirement for Lobbying Activities

Any student objecting to a particular lobbying activity of student government (as defined in Section 405.01 of these policies) supported by compulsory campus-based student fees is entitled to a pro rata refund of that portion of his or her fees that went to support the activity. Criteria and procedures for particular campus-based refund mechanisms shall be developed by campuses in consultation with their student governments, and with the Office of the President and the Office of the General Counsel as required, to ensure the compliance of such mechanisms with both these Policies and the law. Such criteria and procedures must provide that the availability of pro rata refunds be widely and frequently publicized among students, and that all requests for such refunds by objecting students be processed equitably and expeditiously. Students should contact the Office of Student Life for information about pro rata refunds.

405.04 Pro Rata Refunds for Public Policy-Oriented Activities of Student Governments Other than Lobbying

In consultation with its student government or governments, a campus may at its discretion, establish and administer a mechanism providing for a pro rata refund to any student of that portion of his or her compulsory campus-based student fees that has been allocated to support a particular public policy-oriented activity of student government other than lobbying, as defined in systemwide policy. Campuses are encouraged but not required to consult with the Office of the President and with the Office of General Counsel in the development of criteria and procedures for any such refund mechanism. Such criteria and procedures should provide that the availability of pro rata refunds be widely and frequently publicized among students, and that all requests for such refunds by objecting students be processed equitably and expeditiously. Establishment of such a refund mechanism for the public policy-oriented activities of student governments other than lobbying is not required either as a matter of University policy or the law.

406.00 Sponsorship of Speakers

Compulsory campus-based student fees allocated to student governments and/or voluntary contributions made to student governments may be expended to support speakers sponsored by those governments. The purpose of such support must be to stimulate on-campus discussion and debate on a wide range of issues. Student governments may bring in speakers as part of their public policy-oriented activities consistent with campus and UC policy. In the event that an allocation is made by a student government to sponsor a forum with speakers advocating for or against a candidate for a non-student-government office, or for or against an off-campus ballot proposition, the student government must make a good faith effort to invite a representative of the opposing campaign or campaigns to appear at the same time or, if this opportunity is declined, to appear at another time.

407.00 Participation in Non-University Political Campaigns

Consistent with systemwide policy and with the University's Legal Guidelines for UC Participation in Ballot Campaigns student governments may not use University resources to support or oppose a particular candidate or ballot proposition in a non-university political campaign. This is not intended to preclude the use of such resources by student governments for legitimate educational purposes related to such non-university campaigns, in which information about competing candidates for government office and/or information about competing viewpoints with respect to particular ballot propositions is provided in a fair and balanced way.

408.00 Fiscal Soundness and Fiscal Accountability

Chancellors are responsible for the fiscal soundness of student governments, and are responsible in addition for maintaining fiscal accountability over compulsory campus-based student fees and voluntary contributions collected from students to support student governments under the University's authority. The allocation and expenditure of all such funds by student governments shall be in accordance with all applicable University policies.

In the discharge of these responsibilities, chancellors may conduct audits of the finances of student governments, exercise control over expenditures of their funds when and to the extent necessary to maintain the financial solvency of student governments, and where required may take action to ensure that any financial or business activity under the control of student governments is operated in accordance with sound business practices and is consistent with legal requirements and University policies and procedures.

Transfer of Compulsory Campus-Based Student Fees to Non-University Entities

Compulsory campus-based student fees may be expended by a student government to cover the expenses of direct participation by University students in a particular non-university-sponsored educational program or activity. Such fees may also be expended in payment of applicable dues necessary to sustain student government membership in national and other regional non-university associations at the basic level established by such associations, so long as the level of any such assessment is in line with what is assessed similar student organizations at other institutions comparable in size and nature to the University as a requirement of basic membership. Except as provided immediately below, memberships at a preferential level that require the payment of higher periodic dues than what is required to sustain basic membership, or the assessment by such non-university associations of supplemental contributions from their members as an expectation but not a requirement of continued membership, may not be supported from compulsory campus-based student fees.

Other than for considerations of basic membership as set forth above, additional transfers of funds from compulsory campus-based fees by a student government to such non-university associations may be made only when they can be justified, in advance of the transfer, to the chancellor (or other campus official designated by the chancellor with administrative oversight over student government) as providing a direct educational benefit to University of California students commensurate with the proposed expenditure.

Compulsory campus-based fees may not otherwise be expended by a student government in support of, or be otherwise transferred to, a non-university organization, program, or activity, except in payment for goods and services directly necessary to the operation of that student government, its programs or activities.

The referendum process set forth in the systemwide policies on compulsory campus based student fees, and these implementing regulations, shall not be available either to establish a new compulsory campus-based student fee, or to lock in an increase to an existing such fee, that is earmarked for the purpose of providing direct support to any non-university organization.

STUDENT ELECTIONS AND
COMPULSORY CAMPUS-BASED STUDENT FEES

(Reference: UC Systemwide PACAOS 80.00 & 90.00)

500.00 Student Elections

Student elections may be conducted by the Office of Student Life, Associated Students, Graduate Students Association or Campus Elections Commission.

For specific election guidelines, please refer to the Associated Students Election By Laws.

501.00 Compulsory Campus-Based Student Fees

Compulsory campus-based student fees are levied at individual campuses that must be paid by all registered students to whom the fee applies. Such fees may be used to fund student-related services and programs, construction and renovation of student buildings and facilities and authorized student governments. See PACAOS 80.00 Policy on Compulsory Campus-Based Fees for additional information.

For systemwide guidance on assessing voluntary student contributions to student governments and RCOs, please see PACAOS 90.00 Policy on the Campus Assessment of Voluntary Student Contributions to Student Governments and Registered Campus Organizations.

ADMINISTRATION OF STUDENT CONDUCT
(Reference: UC Systemwide PACAOS 100.00)

600.00 Introduction

Honesty, fairness and respect are essential to learning, teaching and research, and to maintaining a productive and safe campus environment. As members of our academic community and of society at large, UC Merced students are held to the high standards of conduct set by the University of California and the campus, as well as to general requirements of law. UC Merced students are expected to uphold these standards in all their academic and extracurricular activities.

UC Merced conduct procedures are intended to promote reasoned, fair, and impartial consideration of suspected student misconduct, with respect for the rights and interests of all concerned: the accused student, the reporting party and the University.

601.00 Student Conduct and the Administration of the Student Conduct System

601.10 The Office of Student Conduct

UC Merced has designated the Office of Student Conduct (OSC) to administer the student conduct system for academic and nonacademic misconduct, recognizing that centralized authority, responsibility and record-keeping are essential to a balanced and impartial student conduct process. OSC reviews and resolves reports of suspected violations of standards of student conduct and cases of academic integrity. OSC determines jurisdiction, maintains confidential conduct records, and administers the informal disposition and formal fact-finding hearing processes.

601.20 Delegation of Authority

Authority for student conduct at UC Merced is delegated from the chancellor to the vice chancellor for Student Affairs to the associate vice chancellor for Student Affairs and the director of Student Life and Student Conduct. The director, and the OSC staff under the director's supervision, have authority to impose conduct sanctions. All conduct action taken by the director, other OSC staff, or any hearing body or hearing officer, operates by delegation of the chancellor's authority.

601.30 Overview of Process

Most cases are resolved through an informal process in which OSC staff meet with the accused student, consult with the reporting party, and, if appropriate, enter a written conduct contract specifying agreed sanctions for any admitted violations of conduct standards. Students are advised of their rights provided by UC Merced conduct procedures, including the right to consult and be accompanied by an advisor during the informal and/or formal processes.

602.00 Reporting Suspected Student Misconduct

602.10 Reporting Suspected Misconduct to the Office of Student Conduct

Suspected student misconduct falling within OSC's jurisdiction should be reported in writing to OSC. Reports should include the following, if known: the accused student's name and identifying information, the nature of the suspected violation, a description of the circumstances, including the date of the incident, names of witnesses, copies of supporting documents, and how to reach the reporting party (report forms are available online or in the Office of Student Life).

602.20 Preliminary Review by Student Conduct

Upon receiving a written report or a request for review, OSC will evaluate the matter. If OSC determines that no further action is warranted, the person reporting the case or requesting the review will be so informed. OSC may decline further action if the report is untimely; if there is no substantial evidence to support the report; if the suspected behavior does not constitute a violation of student conduct standards; or if the suspected incident should be addressed through other policies or procedures.

602.30 Notification to Student

If OSC determines that further inquiry is appropriate, OSC will notify the accused student and reporting party that an investigatory conference is required. The student will be informed in writing (by email/U.S. or campus mail) of the following:

1. The University policies or campus regulations that have allegedly been violated.
2. That he/she must attend the scheduled meeting or schedule a meeting with OSC.
3. That he/she may consult and/or be accompanied by an advisor of his/her choice prior to the investigative conference.
4. That failure to schedule or attend the investigative conference could result in unilateral action being taken by the University.

602.40 Investigative Conference

At the conference with the accused student, the OSC officer describes conduct procedures, informs the student of the specific allegations against him/her, indicates the applicable University policy(ies) or campus regulations alleged to have been violated, and provides details regarding the information supporting the report of misconduct. The accused student is afforded an opportunity to respond, to ask questions and to discuss possible options for resolving the case.

At the conclusion of the investigative conference(s), the Student Conduct officer may conclude that no violation has occurred and that no further action is warranted. If, however, the OSC officer believes that a violation has occurred based upon the preponderance of the evidence, the case will be disposed of either informally or through formal hearing depending upon the potential sanction(s) or the preference of the student and OSC.

Students subject to sanction(s) less than suspension or dismissal will have their case disposed of informally. Students subject to suspension or dismissal are entitled to a formal hearing. Students may waive their right to a formal hearing and accept as final and binding the proposed suspension or dismissal by signing a waiver.

603.00 Informal Disposition

603.10 "Informal disposition" means resolution without a formal hearing, usually by agreement between the student and OSC. Informal disposition can also include unilateral conduct action if a student fails to participate in the conduct process, or sanction without agreement.

603.20 Procedures for Informal Disposition

A. Meetings/communications with accused student

If the accused student participates in informal disposition, the process usually includes one or more meetings or other communications (e.g., phone calls and emails) between the student and OSC to discuss the facts of the case, possible outcomes (including sanctions) and terms of agreement. No audio or digital recordings are permitted without the express consent of all meeting participants.

B. Information Provided by Accused Student

While the accused student is required to respond to Student Conduct, he/she may choose not to provide information in response to the charges (remain silent regarding the allegations). Any information provided by the student in the informal disposition process (whether at a meeting, during a phone call, or in an email or other writing) must be truthful. This information may be shared with the reporting party and may become evidence in a later formal process.

C. Consultation with Reporting Party

The "reporting party" is defined as the individual who submits a written report or request for review to OSC. OSC may consult with the reporting party before reaching an agreement with the student or otherwise resolving the case informally.

D. Resolution by Another

Rather than reach agreement regarding the facts and/or sanction, the student and OSC may agree to have the case resolved by another, such as a mediator.

603.30 Informal Disposition by Agreement or Student Conduct Decision

If after the investigative conference(s) the OSC officer believes a violation has occurred, he or she may offer to resolve the case informally by agreement between the student and OSC. If an agreement is reached, it should be stated in writing and signed by the student, and should contain the following terms, as appropriate:

A. Violation Admitted

The agreement should state whether a violation is acknowledged, and, if so, describe the agreed facts of the incident and the nature of the admitted violation.

B. Terms of Agreed Sanction(s)

If the student and OSC agree on the appropriate sanction(s), the agreement should describe the terms of the sanction(s) to be imposed.

If agreement cannot be reached between the OSC officer and the student, the OSC officer may render a decision and determine a sanction without agreement. If the OSC officer renders a sanction without agreement, s/he will do so within 10 working days of the investigative conference.

603.40 Informal Disposition by Unilateral Action

OSC may resolve a report of suspected misconduct unilaterally by taking administrative action or imposing sanctions if a student:

Has failed or refused to respond within seven days after OSC's first attempt to contact him or her, or has failed or refused to participate in or cooperate with the conduct process, despite reasonable efforts by OSC to contact him/her;
Has withdrawn or failed to re-register while conduct is pending, and the student fails to respond and participate in the conduct process.

OSC has discretion to place holds on a student's registration, graduation, diploma and transcripts; or

1. Impose sanctions unilaterally, including but not limited to censure, probation, interim suspension, suspension or dismissal, as long as the student is provided notice and an opportunity to be heard through the informal disposition process either before the sanctions are imposed, or, if the student fails to respond or cooperate.
2. If the student has previously agreed to a deferred sanction, to impose the agreed deferred sanction or a lesser sanction.
3. Submit the case for formal fact-finding hearing in the student's absence.

603.50 Effect of Withdrawal or Failure to Register on Conduct Process

If the student has withdrawn or failed to re-register, the sanctions will take effect immediately upon re-admission, or sooner if appropriate, as determined by OSC.

603.60 Appeal of Student Conduct Decision, Administrative Action or Unilateral Action

A. After receiving written notice of a sanction(s), action(s), or decisions(s), the student may appeal OSC's decision only if all of the following requirements are met: a) the appeal is in writing, b) the appeal is expressly based upon one of the grounds specified in section 607.20 below, c) the appeal is received by OSC by the stated deadline. The deadline shall not be more than seven days from the issuance of the written notification of the sanction. After the Office of Student Conduct receives the appeal, an appeal officer will be appointed.

A meeting to discuss the appeal will be attended by the student and the appointed appeal officer. All matters considered at this meeting will pertain only to the stated basis for the appeal. The appeal will be granted or denied based upon: a) whether the decision lacks substantial basis to support the findings, b) whether there is incongruity between the proposed sanction and findings, c) whether there was unfairness in the hearing procedure, or d) if there is newly discovered important evidence.

Upon completion of the review by the appointed appeal officer the original sanction may be affirmed, modified, or reversed. The decision of the appeal officer will be final.

B. Appeals from Unilateral Action Imposed for Failure or Refusal to Respond
Appeals from unilateral conduct must be submitted to the director in writing and must state reasonable grounds for the student's non-cooperation or failure to respond during the original process. The director may sustain the original unilateral action, or may reopen the conduct process for informal disposition or formal hearing. If the director sustains the original action, the student may appeal under section 607.20, below.

604.00 Formal Hearings

604.10 Setting a Formal Hearing

Based upon the potential severity of sanctions OSC may refer a case to an appropriate body for a formal hearing. The student may waive this right if they prefer to utilize the informal process.

A. Purpose and Nature of the Hearing

A formal conduct hearing, consistent with the University's educational mission, is a process whereby members of our academic community – students, faculty, and staff

– meet to make determinations of fact. It is not a court proceeding. The goal is to find the truth through a fair, prompt, and effective process, respecting and preserving the rights of the accused student, the University community, the reporting party and any witnesses.

B. Procedures

1. A designated representative from OSC will convene the Hearing Board and notify the student in writing of the date, time and place of the hearing. The notice will include a brief statement of the factual basis of the charges and the University policies or campus regulations allegedly violated.
2. The hearing will occur within a reasonable time frame and the University shall bear the burden of proof.
3. The designated representative from Student Conduct will advise both the Board and the student concerning the protocol and procedures to be followed in the hearing. The designated representative will forward all necessary documents relevant to the hearing, and will only be involved in the hearing process in an administrative role, other than serving as a witness, if called.

604.20

The Hearing Board

The Hearing Board is a panel, normally comprised of students, staff and faculty who may hear academic and nonacademic misconduct cases as assigned and appropriate.

A. Composition of the Standing Pool for Hearing Boards

The vice chancellor for Student Affairs or designee may appoint up to 15 each of staff, faculty (Academic Senate members) and students to the standing pool for campus hearing boards. Undergraduate student members of this pool must be UC Merced students and maintain through the period of service on the board/standing pool a cumulative GPA to reflect good standing in their academic department. Graduate student members must be making normal academic progress.

A hearing panel may be chaired by a student, staff or faculty member as appropriate. A quorum is three panel members, including at least one student and one staff or faculty member, and the maximum membership of a panel is five individuals.

B. Graduate Student Hearing Panels

If the accused student is a graduate or professional student, and a formal hearing becomes necessary, an ad hoc hearing panel may be appointed including at least one graduate-level student and one faculty member with graduate-level teaching and research experience, preferably from the division or school in question.

604.30 Preparation and Hearing Procedures

A. Parties represent themselves

In keeping with the educational nature of the process, accused students and reporting parties speak on their own behalf and present their own case to the hearing panel.

B. Advisors

Both the accused student and the reporting party may each have an advisor of his/her choice to help with preparation for the hearing and who may accompany them at the hearing.

1. The accused student and the reporting party are each responsible for preparing and presenting their own evidence and witnesses at a formal hearing. Advisors may provide assistance to the parties prior to and at a hearing, but advisors do not prepare or present the case for the students.
2. Generally, advisors will not take a direct part in hearings without the consent of the panel or hearing officer. With consent, advisors may ask questions through the panel, and if the party so chooses, present the summarizing statement for the party at the close of the hearing.
3. The panel or hearing officer may exclude an advisor from the hearing if the advisor fails to comply with the hearing procedures, becomes disruptive or impedes or interferes with the hearing process.

605.00 Hearing Procedures

605.10 Applicability

These procedures apply to all conduct hearings unless specifically waived by the accused student or reporting party.

- A. With the guidance of the designated representative from OSC hearing panels and officers have responsibility for the procedural working of the hearing, and may direct appropriate procedures in their discretion, so long as those procedures are consistent with this policy.
- B. A designated OSC representative attends all hearings to ensure compliance with these procedures and facilitate the hearing process.

- C. Upon establishment of cause by either party to the hearing, OSC may grant reasonable extension of the time limits specified in these procedures.

605.15 Scheduling the Hearing

The date for the hearing will be confirmed within 30 days of the time OSC determines a hearing is necessary, although the hearing itself may occur beyond the 30-day period. Hearings may be held during summer sessions or academic break periods.

605.20 Notice of the Hearing

Once it is determined that a formal hearing is necessary to resolve the matter, OSC sends the student written notice within seven days before the hearing.

A. Delivery of Notice

The notice of hearing is emailed, sent by U.S. mail, delivered to an on-campus housing mail address, and/or picked up by the accused student in person from OSC. Normally, the notice must be picked up by the student, or emailed, and/or postmarked at least seven days before the scheduled hearing date, unless the student agrees to a shorter period.

B. Presumption of Delivery

It is presumed that the accused student has received notice if the student has picked up the notice from OSC, or if the notice has been sent to the student by (1) email at the student's primary UC Merced email address; and/or (2) regular U.S. mail at the local address provided by the student to OSC, or the local address and/or email addresses most recently filed with the Registrar's Office; or, if undeliverable at a local address, at the permanent address of record.

C. Contents of Notice

The notice should include the following information:

1. The time, date and place of hearing, or notice that the hearing will be held at a time and place to be specified in a later notice;
2. A brief description of the factual basis of the suspected violation, a list of the University policies or campus regulations reportedly violated, and a summary of the information (documents or other evidence and names of witnesses) to be provided at the hearing;
3. A statement that the student is entitled to be accompanied/assisted by an advisor; and

4. An outline of or link to the hearing process.
5. Either in the notice of hearing, or as soon as possible afterwards, the student is provided with the name(s) of the hearing panel members so that he or she may, if there is good cause, submit a request to disqualify a member.

605.25 Access to Information to be Provided at the Hearing

The accused student may request and receive information in the possession of the University that will be provided at the hearing and other non-confidential information, which the chair finds to be relevant and necessary to a fair hearing.

- A. Submitted in advance
Any information to be provided at the hearing must be submitted in advance to OSC, including (1) copies of documents and other evidence and (2) lists of the names of witness who will be called with a brief description of the subject of each witness's testimony.
- B. Deadline for submission
The accused student and reporting party will each submit copies of their documents and witness lists at least two days before the hearing so that Student Conduct may make copies for the panel. Anything submitted after this deadline will be considered as evidence only with the approval of the chair and the agreement of both parties.

605.30 Disqualification of a Panel Member

Members of a panel should have no prior involvement in the case, and should disqualify themselves if they believe they cannot render a fair decision.

605.35 Pre-Hearing Conference

If several witnesses will be presented, the issues are complex, or if otherwise deemed useful, a pre-hearing conference may be scheduled at the discretion of the hearing panel chair or OSC designated representative. At the pre-hearing conference, the parties will submit documents and lists of witnesses and the general facts to which they will testify. The chair may decide any procedural issues and may exclude proposed testimony that is irrelevant, unduly repetitive, or unreasonably time consuming, or may reserve such determinations until the hearing. The chair may also ask for and decide any challenges regarding disqualification of a panel member.

605.40 Closed Hearings

OSC hearings are "closed" hearings. Witnesses, if any, may be excluded from the hearing except for the time they are testifying or responding to cross-examination. The accused student(s) and referring party(ies) may be present throughout the hearing while evidence is being presented.

605.45 Evidence and Testimony

A. Formal rules of evidence or court procedures are not used in the student conduct process

Student conduct hearings are not court proceedings; the procedures used in civil or criminal trials, motions, or other proceedings before a court or administrative agency do not apply.

The hearing panel may receive and consider spoken, written, or other evidence of the kind on which reasonable persons are accustomed to rely.

B. Testimony and questioning of witnesses

1. No student witness may be compelled to incriminate him/herself. The accused student may remain silent and his/her silence should not be taken as inference of culpability.
2. All parties will direct questions and inquiries through the chair of the hearing panel or designated hearing officer.
3. Both the accused student and the reporting party may request that specified witnesses attend the hearing and testify. If a witness is unavailable to testify at a hearing, OSC may arrange for testimony to be taken at an alternate time under conditions providing an opportunity for oral or written questioning by both parties and the panel members, with the consent of the parties.

605.50 Introductory and Summary Statements

At the beginning of the hearing, the accused student and reporting party may each make a brief introductory statement. After all evidence has been heard, the accused and the reporting party, or, if either so chooses, his/her advisor (as permitted by the Chair), may make a brief summary. OSC representatives may, as appropriate, present additional relevant information to the board.

605.55 Burden of Proof

At any formal hearing, no violation can be found unless it has been shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the accused committed the reported offense.

605.60 Hearing Records

An audio recording of the hearing (but not the deliberations or any other component of the conduct process) will be made.

- A. After the hearing, the accused student and the reporting party may each have access to review the hearing recording.
The audio recording will be retained as part of the record for as long as the conduct record is retained.
- B. Other than for the purpose of the official record as provided above, mechanical or electronic devices for recording or broadcasting are excluded from the hearing.

606.00 Report by Hearing Panel

The hearing panel will prepare a brief written report summarizing its findings of fact and recommendations for sanctions, if any.

The committee must complete deliberations and submit their final report to the director within 14 calendar days of the close of the hearing.

If the recommended sanction is suspension or delay of graduation for more than one calendar year, or for dismissal, the report and recommendation is also submitted to the associate vice chancellor of Student Affairs for concurrence before the sanction is delivered.

If the hearing concerns a graduate student, the director or associate vice chancellor of Student Affairs will consult with the appropriate dean, assistant or associate dean and receive their concurrence before delivering the sanction.

The report will include findings of fact as to each specified charge, and whether the conduct as found does or does not violate the policies or regulations as reported. If the decision is not unanimous, both a majority and a minority report may be submitted. Where appropriate, the report shall make recommendations as to the sanction to be imposed.

606.10 Notice of the Decision

- A. A written notice of the decision and sanction(s) to be imposed, if any, is provided to the accused student and to reporting parties who are campus officials (in accord with legitimate educational interest criteria), together with a copy of the panel's findings and recommendations. The notice of decision may be sent to the UC Merced email address of record for that individual, and should specify the due date of any appeal and the name and address of the official to whom the appeal must be submitted. In addition, notice of the decision may be provided to the alleged victim of a crime of violence.

If the report involved an alleged forcible or non-forcible sex offense, the alleged victim will be informed of the results of the conduct action and process for appeal.

B. To alleged victims of sexual harassment or assault

Regulations and procedures related to sexual harassment and sexual violence are guided by the UC systemwide Policy on Sexual Harassment and Sexual Violence. For campus specific guidelines, see [\[being developed – will insert link when complete\]](#).

C. To members of the press/public

The decision is made public only if the hearing was open or if the student(s) named in the decision give(s) written consent.

607.00 Appeals

607.10 Time for Appeal

If sanction(s) are upheld or imposed by OSC, a student may file a written appeal with the vice chancellor for Student Affairs or dean (per notice instructions) within the time set in the Notice of Decision, generally seven days after the Notice of Decision is emailed or postmarked.

607.20 Grounds for Appeal

The appeal must be in writing, and may request that the decision be overruled or the sanction amended, on the following grounds:

A. The decision lacks substantial basis in fact to support the findings.

On appeal, the appellant has the burden of proving that there is no substantial evidence to support the decision. It is not enough to assert that the hearing panel made an incorrect decision on the issue of whether a preponderance of evidence supports the finding of violation.

B. There is incongruity between the proposed sanction and findings.

C. There has been unfairness in the hearing proceedings.

D. There is newly discovered important evidence not known at the time of the hearing or decision.

607.30 Decision on Appeal

The official to whom the appeal is submitted will respond within 10 days and may deny the appeal; grant the appeal in whole or part; or direct such other relief, as he/she deems appropriate.

608.00 Timeliness of Complaints

608.10 Academic Misconduct Reports

Reports to OSC for suspected academic misconduct must be sent to OSC within 60 days after the end of the semester in which the suspected misconduct occurred or was discovered, or reasonably should have been discovered, or within 30 days after the end of an official investigation.

608.20 Nonacademic Misconduct Reports

Reports of suspected nonacademic misconduct must be sent to OSC within 14 days of when the suspected conduct occurred or was discovered, or reasonably should have been discovered, or within 14 days after the end of an official investigation, unless OSC determines that law or policy provides for a longer reporting period.

608.30 Late Reports

The director has the discretion as to whether or not to accept late reports. If a late report is accepted, the case will proceed either through informal disposition or a formal hearing with consideration given to the impact of the delay in reporting upon the accused student including the unavailability of witnesses or evidence.

609.00 Jurisdiction of Student Conduct

The vice chancellor of Student Affairs has jurisdiction over various types of conduct violations, over students and student organizations, and over on- and off-campus incidents, as described below. This jurisdiction has been delegated to the associate vice chancellor and will generally be referred as described below.

Cases involving reported misconduct under the following categories of rules governing student conduct shall be referred to OSC:

- A. University-wide policies, including the University of California Policies Applying to Campus Activities, Organizations and Students (PACAOS), Section 102.00 “Grounds for Discipline;”
- B. Campuswide rules, including the UC Merced implementation of the systemwide PACAOS (Student and Organization Policies and Regulations), the UC Merced Academic Honesty Policy, and the Alcohol and Other Drug Policy.

- C. Rules established by campus entities (such as departments, residence units, education abroad programs and professional schools) applying to students within such schools, departments, programs, or residence units.

609.10 Students Residing in On-campus Residence Halls Subject to Student Conduct Action

Misconduct by students in the residence halls may be resolved through the student conduct system, by using housing contract remedies, or both. The Housing and Residence Life staff includes conduct officers who have authority designated by the vice chancellor of Student Affairs to resolve cases within campus housing.

609.20 Individuals and Organizations Subject to Student Conduct Action

- A. Definition of “Student.” The UC Standards of Conduct apply to all current UC Merced students, including individuals who are enrolled in or registered with any academic program of UC Merced; who have completed the preceding term and are eligible for reenrollment, including the recess periods between academic terms; or who are on an approved educational leave or other approved leave status, or on filing-fee status.
- B. Applicants, Former Students, and Registered Campus Organizations. The UC Standards of Conduct also apply to
 - 1. Applicants who become students, for offenses committed as part of the application process; on a University of California campus and/or while participating in University-related events or activities; or following submittal of the application through his or her official enrollment, if off-campus jurisdiction would otherwise apply;
 - 2. Former students (including graduates) for offenses committed while a student; and
 - 3. Registered Campus Organizations. Under University policies and campus procedures, RCOs shall be provided with a hearing and basic standards of procedural due process.

609.30 Geographic (On and Off-Campus) Jurisdiction

The Office of Student Conduct has jurisdiction over academic or nonacademic misconduct by students that occurs on UC Merced property or in connection with campus functions, activities, equipment or facilities; Student Conduct also has jurisdiction over off-campus conduct and alleged crimes, as described below.

A. Off-Campus Jurisdiction

Student conduct that occurs off University property is subject to UC Standards of Conduct where it 1) adversely affects the health, safety, or security of any member of the University community, or the mission of the University, or 2) involves academic work or any records, or documents of the University.

B. Determining Jurisdiction

In determining whether or not to exercise jurisdiction over such conduct, the University shall consider the seriousness of the alleged offense, the risk of harm involved, whether the victim(s) are members of the campus community, whether the off-campus conduct occurred at, or in connection with activities of a student group (e.g., RCO, club, athletic team), or whether the conduct is part of a series of actions which occurred both on and off University property.

C. Good Neighbor Relations

1. The University may also exercise jurisdiction over student conduct that occurs off campus where the conduct compromises University neighbor relations. It is expected that students will:
 - a. Foster and maintain good community relations and cooperation with neighbors and authorities.
 - b. Be responsible for their conduct and encourage guests to adhere to the same standard.
 - c. Respect the rights of neighbors and follow existing laws and ordinances.
 - d. Take active steps to prevent damage to neighbors' property by admitted guests and household members and assume responsibility for damage to neighbors' properties caused by household members or guest.

D. Conduct on Other UC Campuses

A student at one campus of the University, who is accused of violation of University policies or campus regulations on another campus of the University, or at an official function of that campus, shall be subject to the conduct procedures of either the former or the latter campus as agreed by designees of both campuses.

610.00 Confidentiality of Student Conduct Records

610.10 Student Conduct Records Are Confidential Student Records

The Office of Student Conduct records containing personally identifiable information about students relating to any conduct action or proceeding are confidential student records. Conduct actions or proceedings include investigation, informal and/or formal hearings, and/or imposition of sanctions for violation(s) of the University of California Policies Applying to Campus Activities, Organizations and Students, the UC Merced Academic Honesty Policy, or these Student and Organization Polices and Regulations.

610.20

Protected from Disclosure

Confidential OSC student records are protected from disclosure under the Federal Educational and Privacy Rights Act (FERPA), as well as the privacy provisions of the California Information Practices Act and the California State Constitution.

700.00 Policies Applying to Campus Activities, Organizations, and Students

The following standards and sanctions are excerpted directly from:

Policies Applying to Campus Activities, Organizations and Students (PACAOS)

Section 100.00 - Policy On Student Conduct And Discipline (Revised February 2011)

Any italicized language in this section represents UC Merced campus-specific implementing regulations.

701.00 Student Conduct

Students are members of both society and the University community, with attendant rights and responsibilities. Students are expected to comply with all laws and with University policies and campus regulations.

The standards of conduct apply to students as the term ‘student’ is defined in Section 14.40 of these Policies. They also apply to:

- A. Applicants who become students, for offenses committed as part of the application process.
- B. Applicants who become students, for offenses committed on campus and/or while participating in University-related events or activities that take place following a student's submittal of the application through his or her official enrollment; and
- C. Former students for offenses committed while a student.

If specified in implementing campus regulations, these standards of conduct may apply to conduct that occurs off campus and that would violate student conduct and discipline policies or regulations if the conduct occurred on campus.

702.00 Grounds for Discipline

Chancellors may impose discipline for the commission or attempted commission (including aiding or abetting in the commission or attempted commission) of the following types of violations by students, as well as such other violations as may be specified in campus regulations.

Violation of local, state, or federal laws otherwise not covered under these standards of conduct.

702.01 Academic Misconduct

All forms of academic misconduct such as cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, or facilitating academic dishonesty.

See UC Merced "Academic Honesty Policy."

702.02 Other Dishonest Acts

Other forms of dishonesty including but not limited to fabricating information, furnishing false information, or reporting a false emergency to the University.

702.03 Forgery, Alteration, or Misuse

Forgery, alteration, or misuse of any University document, record, key, electronic device, or identification.

702.04 Theft, Misappropriation, Possession of Stolen Property, or Vandalism

Theft of, conversion of, destruction of, or damage to any property of the University, or any property of others while on University premises, or possession of any property when the student had knowledge or reasonably should have had knowledge that it was stolen.

702.05 Computer and/or Electronic Resource Theft, Misuse, or Abuse

Theft or abuse of University computers and other University electronic resources such as computer and electronic communications facilities, systems, and services. Abuses include (but are not limited to) unauthorized entry, use, transfer, or tampering with the communications or accounts of others; or interference with the work of others or with operation of computer and electronic communications facilities, systems, and services; or copyright infringement (for example, the illegal file-sharing of copyrighted materials).

Use of University computer and electronic communications facilities, systems, or services that violates other University policies or campus regulations.

Contact the UC Merced Information Technology department for further information regarding acceptable use of electronic communications.

Please refer to the UC Electronic Communications Policy and Digital Copyright Protection at UC for the University's position on digital copyright.

702.06 Unauthorized Entry, Use, or Possession

Unauthorized entry to, possession of, receipt of, or use of any University services, equipment, resources, or properties, including the University's name, insignia, or seal.

702.07 Housing Facilities

Violation of policies, regulations, or rules governing University-owned, -operated, or -leased housing facilities or other housing facilities located on University property.

702.08 Assault, Threats of Violence, or Conduct Threatening Health or Safety

Physical abuse including but not limited to sexual assault, sex offenses, and other physical assault; threats of violence; or other conduct that threatens the health or safety of any person.

Students who file a complaint or grievance, who request an administrative remedy, who participate in an investigation, or who appear as witnesses during a hearing, have the right to be free from threats of violence or other conduct that threatens their health or safety.

702.09 Sexual Harassment

Harassment, defined as conduct that is so severe and/or pervasive, and objectively offensive, and that so substantially impairs a person's access to University programs or activities that the person is effectively denied equal access to the University's resources and opportunities.

Harassment includes, but is not limited to, conduct that is motivated on the basis of a person's race, color, national or ethnic origin, citizenship, sex, religion, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, pregnancy, marital status, ancestry, service in the uniformed services, physical or mental disability, medical condition, or perceived membership in any of these classifications. Pursuant to section 104.90, sanctions may be enhanced for conduct motivated on the basis of the above classifications.

For cases of harassment on the basis of sex, see also Policy on Sexual Harassment and Sexual Violence.

702.10 Stalking

Stalking behavior in which a student repeatedly engages in a course of conduct directed at another person and makes a credible threat with the intent to place that person in reasonable fear for his or her safety, or the safety of his or her family; where the threat is reasonably determined by the University to seriously alarm, torment, or terrorize the person; and where the threat is additionally determined by the University to serve no legitimate purpose.

702.11

(Deleted on October 9, 2009)

702.12 Hazing

Participation in hazing or any method of initiation or pre-initiation into a campus organization or other activity engaged in by the organization or members of the organization at any time that causes, or is likely to cause, physical injury or personal degradation or disgrace resulting in psychological harm to any student or other person.

702.13 Obstruction or Disruption

Obstruction or disruption of teaching, research, administration, conduct procedures, or other University activities.

702.14 Disorderly or lewd conduct.

702.15 Disturbing the Peace

Participation in a disturbance of the peace or unlawful assembly.

702.16 Failure to Comply with Directions of Official, or Resisting or Obstructing Official

Failure to identify oneself to, or comply with the directions of, a University official or other public official acting in the performance of his or her duties while on University property or at official University functions; or resisting or obstructing such University or other public officials in the performance of or the attempt to perform their duties.

702.17 Unlawful Possession, Use or Distribution of Controlled Substances.

Unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, use, or sale of, or the attempted manufacture, distribution, dispensing, or sale of controlled substances, identified in federal and state law or regulations.

702.18 Possession, Use or Distribution of Alcohol in Violation of Policy

Manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, use, or sale of, or the attempted manufacture, distribution, dispensing, or sale of alcohol that is unlawful or otherwise prohibited by, or not in compliance with, University policy or campus regulations.

See UC Merced Alcohol Policy and Use Guidelines (under review/revision).

702.19 Possession, Use or Manufacture of Explosives or Destructive Devices

Possession, use, storage, or manufacture of explosives, firebombs, or other destructive devices.

702.20 Possession, Use, Storage, or Manufacture of Prohibited Weapons

Possession, use, or manufacture of a firearm or other weapon as prohibited by campus regulations.

Examples of weapons UC Merced prohibits include, but are not limited to, stun guns, tasers, retractable bladed knives, knives with a fixed blade over 2.5 inches, nunchucks, sling shots, bows and arrows (except as permitted for departmental demonstrations or classes), air guns (paint, BB, etc.), or any device which closely resembles a firearm. Any item or implement used aggressively or for violent purposes may be deemed a weapon. Mace and pepper spray may not be misused.

702.21 Violation of Conduct Action

Violation of the conditions contained in the terms of a conduct action imposed under these Policies or campus regulations.

702.22 Violation of Emergency Order or Suspension

Violation of the conditions contained in a written Notice of Emergency Suspension issued pursuant to Section 53.00 of these Policies or violation of orders issued pursuant to Section 52.00 of these Policies, during a declared state of emergency.

702.23 Unauthorized Preparation, Sale, or Distribution of Notes or Recordings of University Courses, or Copying of Course Materials

Selling, preparing, or distributing for any commercial purpose course lecture notes or video or audio recordings of any course unless authorized by the University in advance and explicitly permitted by the course instructor in writing. The unauthorized sale or commercial distribution of course notes or recordings by a student is a violation of these Policies whether or not it was the student or someone else who prepared the notes or recordings.

Copying for any commercial purpose handouts, readers or other course materials provided by an instructor as part of a University of California course unless authorized by the University in advance and explicitly permitted by the course instructor or the copyright holder in writing (if the instructor is not the copyright holder).

702.24 Intent to Terrorize

Conduct, where the actor means to communicate a serious expression of intent to terrorize, or acts in reckless disregard of the risk of terrorizing, one or more University students, faculty, or staff. 'Terrorize' means to cause a reasonable person to fear bodily harm or death, perpetrated by the actor or those acting under his/her control. 'Reckless disregard' means consciously disregarding a substantial risk. This section applies without regard to whether the conduct is motivated by race, ethnicity, personal animosity, or other reasons. This section does not apply to conduct that constitutes the lawful defense of oneself, of another, or of property.

702.25 Expectation of Privacy

Making a video recording, audio recording, taking photographs, or streaming audio/video of any person in a location where the person has a reasonable expectation of privacy, without that person's knowledge and express consent.

Looking through a hole or opening, into, or otherwise viewing, by means of any instrumentality, the interior of a private location without the subject's knowledge and express consent.

Photographs and recordings made in private locations of sexual activity or that contain nudity, may not be posted online or otherwise shared or distributed in any manner without the knowledge and express consent of all recorded parties, even if the photograph or recording was originally made with the knowledge and express consent of those parties.

Making a video recording, audio recording, or streaming audio/video of private, non-public conversations and/or meetings, without the knowledge and express consent of all recorded parties.

These provisions do not extend to public events or discussions, nor to lawful official law or policy enforcement activities. These provisions may not be utilized to impinge upon the lawful exercise of constitutionally protected rights of freedom of speech or assembly.

Definitions

"Express consent" is clear, unmistakable and voluntary consent that may be in written, oral or nonverbal form.

"Private locations" are settings where the person reasonably expected privacy. For example, in most cases the following are considered private locations: residential living quarters, bathrooms, locker rooms, and personal offices.

"Nudity" means the absence of an opaque covering which covers the genitals, pubic hair, buttocks, perineum, anus or anal region of any person or any portion of the breast at or below the areola thereof of any female person.

"Private, non-public conversations and/or meetings" include any communication carried on in circumstances that reasonably indicate that any party wants the communication to be confined to the parties, but excludes a communication made in a public gathering, or in any other circumstance in which the parties to the communication may reasonably expect that the communication may be overheard or recorded.

703.00 Student Discipline Procedures

703.10 Procedural Due Process

Procedural due process is basic to the proper enforcement of University policies and campus regulations. Chancellors shall establish and publish campus regulations providing for the handling of student conduct cases in accordance with basic standards of procedural due process. Consistent with this requirement, procedures specified in such regulations shall be appropriate to the nature of the case and the severity of the potential discipline.

703.11 Minimum Procedural Standards

When a formal hearing is deemed to be appropriate, campus implementing regulations shall provide the following minimum procedural standards to assure the accused student a fair hearing:

Written notice, including a brief statement of the factual basis of the charges, the University policies or campus regulations allegedly violated, and the time and place of the hearing, within a reasonable time before the hearing;

The opportunity for a prompt and fair hearing where the University shall bear the burden of proof, and at which the student shall have the opportunity to present documents and witnesses and to confront and cross-examine witnesses presented by the University; no inference shall be drawn from the silence of the accused;

A record of the hearing; an expeditious written decision based upon the preponderance of evidence, that shall be accompanied by a written summary of the findings of fact; and

An appeals process.

UC Merced's student conduct process and procedures can be found in the 600.00 section of UC Merced student and organization policies.

704.00 Administration of Student Discipline

704.10

Chancellors may impose discipline for violations of University policies or campus regulations whether or not such violations are also violations of law, and whether or not proceedings are or have been pending in the courts involving the same acts.

704.20

Each Chancellor may appoint faculty, student, or other advisory committees, or hearing officers, as specified in campus regulations, but the final authority for administration of student discipline rests with the Chancellor.

The UC Merced chancellor has delegated the administration of student discipline to the Office of Student Conduct within the Division of Student Affairs.

704.30

A student, as defined in Section 14.40 of these Policies, at one campus of the University, who is accused of violation of University policies or campus regulations on another campus of the University or at an official function of that campus, shall be subject to the disciplinary procedures of either the former or the latter campus as an outcome of conferral between designees of both campuses. The imposition of any recommendations for disciplinary sanctions arising from these procedures must be reviewed and approved by both campuses before the sanctions are imposed.

704.31

If an alleged violation of University policies occurs in connection with an official Universitywide function not on a campus, the student accused of the violation shall be subject to the disciplinary procedures of the campus at which the individual is a student, except in those cases in which the President directs otherwise.

704.40

The loss of University employment shall not be a form of discipline under these Policies. However, when student status is a condition of employment, the loss of student status will result in termination of the student's employment. This section is not intended to preclude the disclosure to other appropriate University officials of information relating to any student's conduct records if that information may be reasonably construed to have bearing on the student's suitability for a specific employment situation. This section is also not intended to preclude an employer from terminating a student's employment outside the disciplinary process.

704.50

In imposing discipline other than Suspension or Dismissal, access to housing and health services shall not be restricted unless the act that occasioned the discipline is appropriately related to the restriction.

704.60

If as a result of an official campus appeal it is determined that the student was improperly disciplined, the Chancellor shall, if requested by the student, have the record of the hearing sealed, and have any reference to the disciplinary process removed from the student's record. In such case, the record of the hearing may be used only in connection with legal proceedings. The Chancellor also may take other reasonable actions to ensure that the status of the student's relationship to the University shall not be adversely affected.

704.70

The results of any disciplinary action by the University that alleged a forcible or nonforcible sex offense, as defined in 34 CFR 668.46(c)(7), must be disclosed to both the alleged offender and the alleged victim. The scope of information to be provided under this section shall be: (1) the University's final determination with respect to the alleged sex offense; and (2) any sanction that is imposed against the alleged offender.

704.71 [Rescinded October 13, 2005]

704.80

Whether or not a hearing is conducted, campuses may provide written notice to a student that his or her alleged behavior may have violated University policy or campus regulations and that, if repeated, such behavior will be subject to the disciplinary process. Evidence of the prior alleged behavior as detailed in the written notice may be introduced in a subsequent disciplinary action in order to enhance the penalty.

704.90

Sanctions [for any violations of Section 102.00, Grounds for Discipline] may be enhanced where an individual was selected because of the individual's race, color, national or ethnic origin, citizenship, sex, religion, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, pregnancy, marital status, ancestry, service in the uniformed services, physical or mental disability, medical condition, or perceived membership in any of these classifications.

705.00

Types of Student Disciplinary Action

When a student is found in violation of University policies or campus regulations, any of the following types of student disciplinary action may be imposed. Any sanction imposed should be appropriate to the violation, taking into consideration the context and seriousness of the violation.

705.01

Warning/Censure

Written notice or reprimand to the student that a violation of specified University policies or campus regulations has occurred and that continued or repeated violations of University policies or campus regulations may be cause for further conduct action, normally in the form of Conduct Probation, and/or Loss of Privileges and Exclusion from Activities, Suspension, or Dismissal.

705.02 [Rescinded May 17, 2002]

705.03

Disciplinary Probation

A status imposed for a specified period of time during which a student must demonstrate conduct that conforms to University standards of conduct. Conditions restricting the student's privileges or eligibility for activities may be imposed. Misconduct during the probationary period or violation of any conditions of the probation may result in further conduct action, normally in the form of Suspension or Dismissal.

705.04 Loss of Privileges and Exclusion from Activities

Exclusion from participation in designated privileges and activities for a specified period of time. Violation of any conditions in the written Notice of Loss of Privileges and Exclusion from Activities, or violation of University policies or campus regulations during the period of the sanction, may be cause for further conduct action, normally in the form of Probation, Suspension or Dismissal.

705.05 Suspension

Termination of student status at the campus for a specified period of time with reinstatement thereafter certain, provided that the student has complied with all conditions imposed as part of the suspension and provided that the student is otherwise qualified for reinstatement. Violation of the conditions of Suspension or of University policies or campus regulations during the period of Suspension may be cause for further conduct action, normally in the form of Dismissal.

A sanction of suspension is subject to the review and approval of the associate vice chancellor of Student Affairs.

705.06 Dismissal

Termination of student status for an indefinite period. Readmission to the University shall require the specified approval of the Chancellor of the campus to which a dismissed student has applied. Readmission after dismissal may be granted only under exceptional circumstances.

A sanction of dismissal is subject to the review and approval of the associate vice chancellor of Student Affairs.

705.07 Exclusion From Areas of the Campus or Official University Functions

Exclusion of a student as part of a conduct sanction from specified areas of the campus or other University-owned, -operated, or -leased facilities, or other facilities located on University property, or from official University functions, when there is reasonable cause to believe that the student's presence there will lead to physical abuse, threats of violence, or conduct that threatens the health or safety of any person on University property or at official University functions, or other disruptive activity incompatible with the orderly operation of the campus.

705.08 Interim Suspension

Exclusion from classes, or from other specified activities or areas of the campus, as set forth in the Notice of Interim Suspension, before final determination of an alleged violation. A student shall be restricted only to the minimum extent necessary when there is reasonable cause to believe that the student's participation in University activities or presence at specified areas of the campus will lead to physical abuse, threats of violence, or conduct that threatens the health or safety of any person on University property or at official University functions, or other disruptive activity incompatible with the orderly operation of the campus. A student placed on Interim Suspension shall be given prompt notice of the charges, the duration of the Interim Suspension, and the opportunity for a prompt hearing on the Interim Suspension. Interim Suspension shall be reviewed by the Chancellor within twenty-four hours. If a student is found to have been unjustifiably placed on Interim Suspension, the University is committed to a policy whereby reasonable efforts are taken to assist an individual who has been disadvantaged with respect to employment or academic status.

Interim suspension may be invoked only by the vice chancellor or associate vice chancellor of Student Affairs.

705.09 Restitution

A requirement for restitution in the form of reimbursement may be imposed for expenses incurred by the University or other parties resulting from a violation of these policies. Such reimbursement may take the form of monetary payment or appropriate service to repair or otherwise compensate for damages. Restitution may be imposed on any student who alone, or through group or concerted activities, participates in conduct causing the damages or expenses.

705.10 Revocation of Degree

Subject to the concurrence of the Academic Senate, revocation of a degree obtained by fraud. Such revocation is subject to review on appeal by the Chancellor.

705.11 Other

Other disciplinary actions, such as monetary fines, community service, or holds on requests for transcripts, diplomas, or other student records to be sent to third parties, as set forth in campus regulations.

705.11a UC Merced campus-specific sanctions (in italics) follow:

Delay of Graduation

Defined as the delaying the granting of a degree, after the student has completed all academic requirements, until the end of the specified period. Once the period of delay has elapsed, the degree will be awarded as of that date, provided that the student has complied with all conditions imposed as part of the delay of graduation and that he/she is otherwise qualified to graduate under degree requirements applicable at the time the delay was imposed. During the delay, the student may not enroll in any classes at UC

Merced. Violation of University policies or campus regulations during the delay may be cause for further conduct action, normally in the form of dismissal

Name on File

Defined as a written record of a student violation reported to the Office of Student Conduct by other campus officials. The student's name is reported to OSC after another campus official (e.g., faculty, Resident Advisor, or Bookstore staff) has met with the student regarding the misconduct. A "Name on File" is equivalent to a written Warning or Censure. The student is notified of the report and given an opportunity to respond. If the student does not respond, or if, after a response, OSC determines the report is supported by the evidence, the violation may be considered in assessing a sanction for any later similar offense.

Special Assignment

Defined as assignment of costs, labor, duties, educational projects, or other responsibilities that are appropriate in light of the violation, or relevant to the student's role on campus or living area. Sanctions may include educational projects, research papers or personal essays, workshops or training, community service, or outreach project.

Educational Projects – A student may be assigned to complete a specific educational task or project.

De-registration

Applies to registered campus organizations. Defined as "forfeit ...[off] registered status with the accompanying loss of rights and privileges." Such forfeiture shall remain in effect for the period of time specified in the Notice of De-registration.

Deferred Separation, Deferred Suspension, and/or Deferred Dismissal

Defined as a delay in imposing a Suspension or Dismissal, which means that a Suspended or Dismissed student may be permitted to remain in school on condition that he/she agrees to waive the right to a formal fact-finding hearing for any new violation of specified conduct standards. The right to an investigative conference and informal disposition is not waived. If the student whose Suspension/Dismissal has been deferred is later reported again, and admits or is found in violation by a OSC officer of having committed a subsequent violation of specified conduct standards, the deferred Suspension or Dismissal may be implemented at that time without a formal hearing. "Deferred Separation" means that an OSC officer may impose any appropriate sanction, including Dismissal, after determining that violation has occurred.

Administrative Actions (these are not sanctions and do not result in a conduct record)

Administrative Holds - Administrative holds may be placed on students' registration, transcript, diploma, or graduation to ensure that they respond to OSC, and to enforce certain sanctions. Holds prevent students from registering or graduating, or from receiving copies of diplomas or transcripts, while a conduct matter is pending or while a sanction of suspension, dismissal, revocation of degree, or delay of graduation is in force.

Administrative Notice - An administrative notice provides official notice of University standards and policies, but does not imply a finding that the student has committed a violation, and does not constitute conduct action. If the student is referred subsequently for similar misconduct, the notice may be relevant to the student's knowledge of University and campus standards, policies, and regulations.

No Contact Directive – A student may be directed to abstain from any contact with a specific individual or group. Contact includes direct, indirect, or intentional contact. Direct, indirect, and intentional contact includes all forms of communication including but not limited to phone calls, text messages, verbal communication, social networks, emails, letters, contact via friends or family or contact with the restricted individual's friends or family.

Posting Suspension or Dismissal on Academic Transcripts

When, as a result of violations of the Policy on Student Conduct and Discipline, a student is suspended or dismissed, a notation that the discipline was imposed must be posted on the academic transcript for the duration of the suspension or dismissal. Thereafter, notations of Suspension or Dismissal reflected on a student's transcript may be removed as set forth in campus regulations.

At UC Merced, suspension and dismissal must be posted on the student's academic transcript for the duration of the sanction. Suspensions are annotated on student transcripts with the statement "READMISSION PRIOR TO [Semester in which student may re-enroll in UC Merced] SUBJECT TO APPROVAL OF DIRECTOR OF STUDENT CONDUCT." The transcripts of Dismissed students bear the statement "READMISSION TO THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA SUBJECT TO APPROVAL OF THE CHANCELLOR." Notations of Suspension are removed at the end of the suspension, and notation of dismissal is removed if the student is readmitted to UC Merced.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Preliminary Statement

Academic integrity is the foundation of an academic community. Academic integrity applies to research as well as undergraduate and graduate coursework.³

Definitions

Academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, altering graded examinations for additional credit, having another person take an examination for you, or facilitating academic dishonesty or as further specified in this policy or other campus regulations.

Cheating is the unauthorized use of information in any academic exercise, or other attempt to obtain credit for work or a more positive academic evaluation of work through deception or dishonesty. Cheating includes, but is not limited to: copying from others during an examination; sharing answers for a take-home examination without permission; using notes without permission during an examination; using notes stored on an electronic device without permission during an examination; using an electronic device to obtain information during an exam without permission; taking an examination for another student; asking or allowing another person to take an examination for you; tampering with an examination after it has been corrected, then returning it for more credit than deserved; submitting substantial portions of the same academic work for credit in more than one course without consulting the second instructor; preparing answers or writing notes in a blue book before an examination; falsifying laboratory, or other research, data or using another person's data without proper attribution; allowing others to do the research and writing of an assigned paper (for example, using a commercial term paper service or downloading a paper from the internet); and working with another person on a project that is specified as an individual project.

Plagiarism refers to the use of another's ideas or words without proper attribution, or credit. This includes, but is not limited to: copying from the writings or works of others into one's academic assignment without attribution,

¹Some of the procedures and definitions contained in this policy statement are taken from UCSB's Academic Honesty Policy, <http://hep.ucsb.edu/people/hnn/conduct/disq.html>

or submitting such work as if it were one's own; using the views, opinions, or insights of another without acknowledgment; or paraphrasing the ideas of another without proper attribution. Credit must be given: for every direct quotation; when a work is paraphrased or summarized, in whole or in part (even if only brief passages), in your own words; and for information which is not common knowledge. The requirement to give credit applies to published sources, information obtained from electronic searches and unpublished sources.

Collusion is when any student knowingly or intentionally helps another student to perform any of the above acts of cheating or plagiarism. Students who collude are subject to discipline for academic dishonesty. No distinction is made between those who cheat or plagiarize and those who willingly facilitate cheating or plagiarism.

801.00 Notice to Students

Instructors (faculty, lecturers, TAs and so forth) should explain to students at the outset of a course and on the syllabus the behavior expected of them when taking examinations or preparing and submitting other course work.

In some courses, instructors will announce that it is allowed for students to work together. In such cases, all students should write up their work independently of one another, unless explicit approval has been given to a common write-up. Students should write on their paper the names of other students with whom they have collaborated.

Any member of the university community who suspects that a violation of the academic honesty policy may have occurred may report it to the instructor of record. If the instructor of record is unavailable, or the case is outside the scope of the course, it should be reported to the dean of the school/college/graduate division offering the course.

802.00 Approaches to Violations

Discipline for academically dishonest behavior is exercised on two levels:

A. Stage 1 (Instructor-Led Process)

The instructor of record for the course has the authority to handle an incident of student academic misconduct directly, by any of the following means:

1. Assigning a failing grade for the course.
2. Assigning a failing grade for the course, with additional notation placed on the student's transcript that the failing grade was the result of a violation of the Academic Honesty Policy.
3. Assigning a failing or zero grade for the piece of work.

4. Lowering the grade on the piece of work.
5. Assignment of additional work or reexamination.

If any violation of the UCM Academic Honesty Policy is suspected in a course, the instructor of record must fill out the Faculty Report for Academic Misconduct and then meet formally with the student(s) involved to explain the suspected misconduct and the academic sanctions the instructor is recommending. If the student(s) admits to the violation and accepts the sanctions, the instructor and student sign the Faculty Report Form and the instructor submits the form to OSC. If the student refuses to admit that a violation has taken place or refuses to meet with the instructor, the instructor must provide written notification to the student and the dean of the School/College/Graduate Division offering the course outlining what remedies the instructor elects to impose. In addition, the instructor must submit a copy of the written notification and the Faculty Report Form to OSC. The Form will be kept on file in OSC for the duration of the student's enrollment at UC Merced.

A student may ask for a review of the action taken by the instructor by submitting a written request to the dean of the school/college/graduate division offering the course. The dean may either respond to the request or refer the matter to the Office of Student Conduct for an advisory opinion. If the dean is the instructor of the course, the request for review should be forwarded to the executive vice chancellor and provost. Students have ten working days to submit a written request for review; the dean/EVC has 10 days to review the request and respond to the student in writing. The dean/EVC may take action to revise or revoke the action of the instructor on the basis that the instructor failed to follow the procedures set forth herein, or that the instructor's action was based on impermissible criteria (for example, discrimination on the basis of race, ethnicity, national origin, or sex).

B. Stage 2 (Formal Disciplinary Procedures)

If the instructor of record believes that the academic misconduct was especially serious, he/she can recommend in writing that action be taken by the dean of the school/college/graduate division offering the course. If dean agrees that the conduct is especially serious, he/she will refer the case to OSC for investigation.

The OSC may conduct interviews that may include the reporting party, all witnesses, and any person(s) alleged to have violated the University regulation. All persons accused will be informed in writing of the nature of the charge, his/her rights, and the procedures to be followed.

If the preliminary investigation does not result in the withdrawal of charges by the OSC, in consultation with the dean, the case will be heard by the Faculty/Student Academic Conduct Board. The dean or his/her designee will serve as the chair of the Academic Conduct Board. The Faculty/Student Academic Conduct Board will be comprised of:

three faculty members nominated by the Committee on Committees, one undergraduate, one graduate student, and a staff member from OSC or designee. At least five members of the Board must be present for a hearing to take place. The University's case will be presented by a staff member of OSC or designee.

All hearings for alleged academic or behavioral conduct violations will respect students' due process rights. Detailed instructions about how hearings will be conducted are outlined in section 600.00-610.20 of UC Merced's Student and Organization Policies and Procedures.

In sum, persons involved in the Conduct Hearing process have the following rights and responsibilities:

The Student:

1. Shall be served with a written notice of the specific charges, the time and the place of the hearing, and a copy of the procedures which will govern the hearing at least five calendar days prior to the hearing.
2. May be accompanied by an advisor; however, students will be expected to speak for themselves.
3. Is entitled to be present during the hearing while evidence is being presented and may remain until the board begins confidential deliberations.
4. Shall have the right to produce witnesses and confront and cross-examine all witnesses.

The Academic Conduct Board:

1. Shall base its findings upon the preponderance of evidence.
2. Shall keep summary minutes of the hearing that will be available to the student within seven working days following the hearing.
The student shall receive written notice, by email, U.S. mail or campus mail, within five working days following the hearing informing him/her of any decision, including recommended sanctions, if applicable.

803.00 Sanctions for Stage 2 (Formal Disciplinary Procedures)

Individuals found responsible by the Faculty/Student Academic Conduct Board for violating University policies or regulations regarding academic honesty may receive the following sanctions:

803.01 Disciplinary Probation

A status imposed for a specified period of time during which a student must demonstrate conduct that conforms to University standards. Conditions restricting the student's privileges or eligibility for activities may be imposed. Misconduct during the probationary period or violation of any conditions of the probation may result in further disciplinary action, normally in the form of Suspension or Dismissal. The sanction of probation is normally limited to a student's first violation.

803.02 Loss of Privileges and Exclusion from Activities

Specific exclusions or loss of privileges for a specified academic term or terms.

803.03 Suspension

Termination of student status for a specified term or terms. This sanction will be noted on the student's academic transcript during the term(s) of suspension.

803.04 Dismissal

Termination of student status from the University for an indefinite period. Students who are dismissed may not return to UC Merced without the express permission of the chancellor. This sanction will be noted on the student's academic transcript.

803.05 Additional Sanctions

Disciplinary sanctions may be imposed instead of or in addition to the sanctions listed above and may include, but are not limited to, the following.

- A. In cases where a determination of academic misconduct has been made and where close supervision of a student's academic conduct seems appropriate, course instructors may be requested to specifically monitor or separately test that student for a specified period of time.
- B. Work, research projects, or community service projects may be assigned.
- C. Violations of any of the conditions imposed under this section can be cause for further disciplinary action, usually in the form of loss of privileges and exclusion from activities, suspension, or dismissal.
Sanctions are assigned with the intent of correlating the sanction with the extent and severity of the violation(s) as well as any past violations.

804.00 Appeals

Appeals by a student, following Stage 2 sanctions, must be directed to the executive vice chancellor and provost. The EVC will only review written materials regarding the case including hearing documents provided by the chair, the appeal letter provided by the student outlining the rationale for the appeal, and any new evidence provided by the student which was previously unavailable at the time of the hearing. Appeals shall be limited to the following:

- A. Whether there is substantial evidence to support the finding(s) of violation of University policies or campus regulations for which the discipline was imposed.
- B. Whether there is evidence, which could not be adduced at the time of the original hearing and which is likely to change the result.
- C. Whether there was procedural unfairness at the conduct of the hearing.
- D. Whether the sanctions imposed were too harsh given the findings of fact and relevant circumstances.

Any appeal to the executive vice chancellor and provost must be made in writing and received by the EVC within 10 working days after the student receives the decision of the Academic Conduct Board. The decision of the executive vice chancellor and provost or his/her designee is final and shall be conveyed to the student and the student's dean in writing within 15 working days of receipts of the appeal letter. The EVC or his/her designee will then formally notify all other parties involved in the case of the outcome of the appeal.

If an academic honesty case whose outcome would affect the student's grade remains under investigation or appeal at the time final grades are due, the instructor of record shall assign a grade of "NR" until the case is resolved.

805.00 Maintenance of Disciplinary Records

Disciplinary records regarding academic misconduct will be maintained in the Office of Student Conduct as long as the student is enrolled and for a minimum of five years thereafter. Records will then be destroyed unless OSC determines there is good reason to retain the records beyond that date.

STUDENT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES
(Reference: UC Systemwide PACAOS 110.00)

- 900.00 Chancellors shall develop and submit for approval by Student Academic Services in the Office of the President, and in consultation with the Office of the General Counsel, procedures to resolve grievances claiming to have been the subject of any of the following types of University action:
- Violation of privacy rights
 - Discriminatory practices based on gender
 - Discriminatory practices based on disability
 - Discriminatory practices based on race, color, or national origin
 - Other types of actions that may be grieved, such as discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, age, or marital status, medical condition (cancer-related), ancestry, citizenship, or status as a Vietnam-era veteran or special disabled

901.00 UC Merced Student Grievance Procedure

A. Purpose and Scope

1. The purpose of this procedure is to provide UC Merced students an opportunity to resolve complaints against the University alleging discrimination based upon gender, disability, race, color, national origin, sexual orientation, age, marital status, medical condition (cancer-related), ancestry, citizenship, status as a Vietnam-era veteran, or any other action that may be grieved. Please consult with UC Merced's Title IX officer for procedures related to the resolution of alleged sexual harassment and the Office of the Registrar for procedures for addressing alleged violations of educational rights and privacy.
2. This procedure is not applicable to decisions rendered via the Student Conduct process. An appeals process is in place for that purpose and can be found in the 603.60 of the Student and Organization Policies and Regulations.

Definitions

Administrative Officer –The person designated to represent the University and serve as fact finder in formal administrative reviews.

Title IX Officer – University officer responsible for monitoring campus efforts to meet requirements of the 1972 federal legislation that prohibits all forms of sex discrimination in educational institutions that receive federal funding. At UC Merced, the Title IX officer receives and facilitates the review of all sexual harassment complaints.

Discrimination – An illegal or prohibited adverse educational action or harassment based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, pregnancy (includes pregnancy, childbirth, and medical conditions related to pregnancy and childbirth), physical or mental disability, medical condition (cancer related or genetic characteristics), ancestry, marital status, age, sexual orientation, citizenship, or service in the uniformed services (includes membership, application for membership, performance of service, application for service, or obligation for service in the uniformed services).

Harassment – Conduct that is so severe or pervasive and objectively offensive, and that so substantially impairs a student’s access to University programs or activities, that the student is effectively denied equal access to the University’s resources and opportunities on the basis of the categories listed in “Discrimination” above.

Adverse educational action – An action that unreasonably and significantly interferes with a student’s admission to, access to, or treatment in educational programs or activities.

- A. Filing a Complaint of Discrimination, Harassment or Arbitrary Treatment
1. A written complaint must be filed within sixty (60) calendar days of the time the student could reasonably be expected to have knowledge of any injury caused by the alleged discriminatory, harassing or arbitrary action.
 2. Student reports of discrimination, harassment or arbitrary treatment should be submitted in writing to Student Conduct or UC Ethics Point. If the student feels there is a conflict of interest with the Office of Student Conduct, the vice chancellor for Student Affairs will receive and facilitate the review of the complaint. If the grievance contains allegations of sexual harassment or sexual violence, the report will be referred to the Title IX Officer for review and investigation, pursuant to the UC systemwide policy on Sexual Harassment and Sexual Violence.
 3. The complaint must contain the following:
 - a. The complainant’s name and contact information.
 - b. The identify of the respondent(s).
 - c. A description of the alleged discrimination, harassment, or arbitrary treatment.
 - d. The alleged discrimination or harassment (e.g., discrimination based on race, gender, disability or other illegal grounds) or arbitrary treatment.
 - e. An explanation of the evidence supporting the complainant’s assertion that the respondent engaged in the alleged conduct for discriminatory or arbitrary reasons.
 4. The complainant must state the fact on which the complaint of discriminatory, harassing, or arbitrary treatment is based.

- a. If the complaint is timely but does not include all the necessary facts, it will be returned to the complainant within 15 calendar days.
 - b. The complainant will have seven calendar days to correct the deficiencies.
 - c. If the complainant fails to submit a corrected complaint that includes all the necessary facts, the complaint may be dismissed.
5. Students are not required to file multiple or serial complaints regarding the same incident or action.
- a. The University shall ensure that complaints reported through this procedure are handled appropriately so that the student obtains a full remedy for any discrimination, harassment, or arbitrary treatment found to have occurred.
 - b. When a complaint is submitted through this procedure but is more appropriately handled through another procedure, OSC will coordinate a joint process or transfer the complaint to the appropriate procedure and inform the complainant in writing of the procedures that will be used.
6. Within 15 days of receiving a complaint of discrimination, harassment, or arbitrary treatment, OSC will inform the complainant in writing of the available processes, including informal resolution, the range of possible outcomes, the right to appeal a decision, and the confidentiality policies.

B. Informal Resolution Procedures

Informal resolution may be used when parties want to resolve the situation cooperatively and/or when a formal administrative review is unlikely to lead to a satisfactory outcome. The complainant and respondent are encouraged to participate in informal resolution.

1. The informal resolution process shall be coordinated by OSC. After receipt of a complaint that meets the requirements set forth in above, OSC shall provide the parties with the written information about informal resolution. Steps taken to encourage informal resolution and agreements reached will be document by OSC.
2. Informal resolution may include but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Mediating agreement between parties.
 - b. Separating the parties.
 - c. Preliminary inquiry including fact-finding.

- d. No-fault conversation with written confirmation, or negotiating an agreement for disciplinary actions.
 - e. Conducting targeted educational and training programs.
 - f. Referring parties to a counseling program.
 - g. Providing remedies and/or referral to support services for the individual harmed by the discrimination.
- 3. The informal resolution process may last up to 45 calendar days, unless extended by mutual agreement of the parties or by OSC with written notice to the parties.
 - 4. OSC will notify both parties in writing when the informal resolution process is completed and provide a summary of the outcome.

E. Formal Campus Resolution Procedures

If a complaint of discrimination, harassment, or arbitrary treatment is not resolved by informal resolution, within ten calendar days the Director of Student Conduct shall review the complaint to determine if the complaint is eligible for formal administrative review.

1. Insufficient Evidence

If the director of Student Conduct determines, based on information developed through the informal resolution process, that there is insufficient evidence to warrant an administrative review, the director shall issue a written decision to the complainant explaining the determination.

- a. For a period of 7 calendar days after receipt of the director's decision, the complainant may submit a request for reconsideration.
- b. If the director denies the request, the decision is final.

2. Formal Administrative Review

If the director of Student Conduct determines that the complainant alleges facts that may establish a violation of University policy, the director shall refer the complaint for formal administrative review.

- a. Upon referral for formal administrative review, the director of Student Conduct, or his/her designee as appropriate, shall promptly designate an Administrative Officer to serve as fact finder. The Title IX Officer will serve as the Administrative Officer for any sexual harassment related complaints.

- b. Within 15 days of initiating the formal administrative review, OSC shall notify the parties, in writing, of the name(s) of the Administrative Officer, a statement of allegations under review, and a date for completion of the review.
 - c. Parties and witnesses shall be instructed that confidentiality is important to protect the integrity of the review. The reviewer's disclosure of facts or allegations to parties and witnesses shall be limited to what is reasonably necessary to conduct a fair review.
 - d. The Administrative Officer shall complete the investigation and produce a report within sixty (60) days of the initial receipt of the complaint in the Office of Student Conduct. The report should contain a summary of the allegations and issues presented by the complaint, the positions of the parties, a statement of the applicable law or policy, a summary of the evidence and factual findings reached in the investigation and the AO's determination as to whether University policy has been violated. If directed to do so, the report should also include a recommendation of remedies to resolve the complaint.
 - e. The time limit for conclusion of the administrative review may be extended when deemed necessary by OSC. Written notice of the extension will be provided to the complainant and the respondent.
 - f. With 15 days of submission of the report, OSC will notify the parties, in writing, of the following:
 - Whether or not there was a finding that University policy was violated and the reasons for the finding.
 - The investigative steps that led to the decision, including a summary of the facts gathered.
 - Any actions that will be taken that are directly related to the party receiving the notice (e.g., an order that the respondent not contact the complainant) including any remedies that OSC determines are appropriate and within the scope of its authority.
 - g. The outcome of the administrative review can be appealed as set forth below.
3. Actions following a finding of discrimination, harassment, or arbitrary treatment
 - a. Within 15 calendar days of notifying parties of the review outcome, OSC shall authorize appropriate remedies within the scope of its authority.
 - b. If the discrimination, harassment, or arbitrary treatment related to matters where another campus official holds authority to make remedial, non-disciplinary action or implement a reviewer recommendation, OSC shall forward the report to that official within seven calendar days of notifying parties of the review outcome. The official shall not reexamine the determination that discrimination, harassment, or arbitrary treatment occurred.

- c. If the complaint relates to grades, the dean of the School shall determine whether the complainant receive an unfair grade because of the discrimination, harassment, or arbitrary treatment, and if so, the appropriate grade to award or action to be taken (e.g., granting a retroactive withdrawal). The dean shall not reexamine the determination that discrimination, harassment, or arbitrary treatment occurred. Nothing in this policy otherwise changes the guidelines and procedures under which the faculty operate.
- d. If any member of the UC Merced community is found to have engaged in discrimination, harassment, or arbitrary treatment in violation of this policy, the investigative report shall be referred to the appropriate campus official for further handling under the applicable disciplinary policies and procedures. Administrative review reports prepared under this policy may be used as evidence in disciplinary actions if permitted by applicable rules.

4. Appeals

- a. The student may seek reconsideration of an adverse determination by filing a written request for review with the office of the vice chancellor for Student Affairs within ten days of receiving a written notice of the determination. This request must be based on at least one or more of the following grounds:
 - There is no substantial evidence to support the decision made by the reviewer.
 - There is newly discovered evidence that is material to the findings of fact and that was not available to the complainant prior to the conclusion of the review.
 - The remedies or actions are inadequate to redress the harm.
 - There was a procedural error that materially affected the fairness of the proceedings and prejudiced the appellant.
- b. If the appeal is based on a claim that there is no substantial evidence to support the decision, that there was a procedural error, or that the remedy is inadequate, the reviewer shall consider the record as a whole to determine if the appeal is supported by the record, and if so, shall take appropriate action (e.g., initiate a new review, correct an error, or provide a different remedy).
- c. If the appeal is based on newly discovered evidence, the reviewer may forward the evidence to the original reviewer to evaluate. If the original reviewer advises that the evidence provided by the appellant is not newly discovered, or was already considered, the appeal shall be denied.
- d. The vice chancellor shall provide a written response within 30 days following the notice of appeal. The determination of the vice chancellor for Student Affairs is final.
